status and places and this wholesale segregation in the department has ceased, as it should cease. It ought never to have begun.

The segregation of federal employees by the United States government at the national capital is, in our judgment, largely responsible for the obsession for racial segregation which is sweeping the country, has caused regrettable occurrences and outbreaks in several sections of our country, and will cause more serious trouble if not abandoned or radically modified.

The restoration of sanity on this subject is imperative. It is because of this that the backdown, and in the light of his former attitude on the subject, Mr. Work has wisely backed down—on this segregation policy is significant and far-reaching. The fight on segregation of government employees must continue until the last vestige of it has gone. When the government ceases its policy of segregation of its employees at the capital, then we can hope for a return to sanity on this subject throughout the country.

INDIANA GOVERNOR REFUSES GEORGIA EXTRADITION WARRANT

New York, N. Y.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People announces receipt of a telegram from Attorney R. L. Bailey, reporting that Governor Ed Jackson has declined to deliver to a Georgia sheriff, warrant for extradition of Samuel Kennedy, a colored man whose extradition the N. A. A. C. P. has fought in the two states of Illinois and Indiana.

The N. A. A. C. P. fought extradition on the ground that Kennedy's life would not be safe if he were returned to Georgia. The Georgia sheriff was intercepted with his prisoner in a train in Chicago two minutes before train time. He was again stopped in Terre Haute, Indiana, and with the refusal of Governor Jackson to deliver the colored man, the Georgia sheriff has met a decisive check.

New York, N. Y.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is prepared to cooperate with its Gary branch and Gary citizens in legal action to prevent the school segregation enacted by the city council of Gary, Indiana, in deference to the wishes of a striking mob of white students, it was announced today.

The association during the past week communicated by long distance telephone with Attorney R. L. Bailey of Indianapolis, requesting him to visit Gary and report on what grounds if any there was to bring the segregation into court.

Mr. Bailey reports one suit already begun to prevent the city council from erecting the proposed building to house colored high school students. Such other action as gives promise of being effective, will be undertaken.
