ATTORNEY ASSAULTED

Mr. H. J. Pinkett, one of Omaha's well-known attorneys, reports to The Monitor that just after leaving his home, 2116 North Twenty-fifth street, about half past 7 o'clock Wednesday morning for his office, he was accosted on the corner of Twenty-fifth and Burdette streets by a young colored man, about 25 years of age, whom he did not know, and who was armed with an automatic and brass knuckles. The man accused him of insulting his sister on Twenty-fourth street the night before and saying "I am going to break your neck" knocked Pinkett down twice.

Mr. Pinkett says he does not remember ever seeing his assailant before, and the only time he was on Twenty-fourth street Tuesday night was when in company with his wife he was going to the picture show. He reported the case to the police.

NEGRO ELECTED TO SUPERVISE SCHOOLS OF CHURCH INSTITUTE

Wallace A. Battle Chosen as Field Secretary of The American Church Institute For Negroes

New York—For the first time in Episcopal church history, a Negro was elected to its general staff Tuesday, when the board of trustees of the American Church Institute for Negroes approved the selection of Wallace A. Battle, southern educator, for the position of field secretary of the institute.

Supervision of the ten schools under the institute, which represent an investment of $3,000,000 and enroll more than 7,000 Race students annually, will be largely under Battle's directorship, trustees said.

VICE PRESIDENT'S WIFE SAVES TINY COLORED BOY

Evanston, Ill.—Mrs. Chas. Gates Dawes, wife of the Vice President, rescued a 4-year-old colored boy from drowning Saturday in the grounds of the Dawes home in Evanston.

Disregarding her shimmering white gown, Mrs. Dawes rushed to the aid of Howard Jackson, who had fallen into the fountain while playing with more than a hundred other youthful guests at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Dawes for the inmates of the Evanston and Chicago charitable institutions.

Emerging from the water, Mrs. Dawes carried the child into her home where she attired him in a suit of rompers outgrown by Dana Dawes.

COLLEGE COACH FIRM FOR NEGRO STAR ON TEAM; SOUTHERNERS YIELD

New York—Because of the presence of David Meyer, stellar left guard on the New York U grid squad, the West Virginia Wesleyan team objected to playing the team Coach Meehan, Irish Catholic, refused to play without the services of his colored star, however. The southern school, fearing it would hurt its prestige in getting games with northern institutions, finally agreed to play.

WHY NEGRO WOMEN ARE SO BEAUTIFUL

It is estimated that Negro women spend $20,000,000 every year upon toilet preparations and beautifiers. From this it is quite clear how such large fortunes have been accumulated in cosmetics.
