Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The Hallowe'en season was thoroughly enjoyed by all departments. The five Girl Reserve clubs each gave a party. On Monday night, the biggest affair given by the Les Travailles girls brought the Hallowe'en week to a fitting climax. At this party, over a hundred attended. Refreshments befitting the occasion were served by all of the groups. There were many unique and ridiculous costumes. Ghosts and witches, along with the other evil spirits, sprang up from every source conceivable at the North Side Branch.

The Community Chest workers have been meeting daily for reports and inspirational talks.

All classes are progressing very rapidly. Attendance at the Night School has tripled since the enrollment night. All of the classes promises very excellent results. The members enrolled in the Art Class are all enthused over the work that they are doing, and by the time the class is dismissed it will be found that many have made their Christmas gifts, thus saving much time and energy at the last minute.

The Publicity Committee have started their work with a bang. At night, some very good plans are outlined.

Rev. John Adams left Wednesday for Baton Rouge, La., and other southern cities, where he will attend conferences of the A. M. E. church.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Maurice Micklin announces that he has leased the New Lake Theatre to George W. Hartmann of Kansas, City, Missouri.

Mr. Hartmann is an experienced showman and is now operating two theatres in Kansas City. The Lake will present high-class pictures, vaudeville and musical features and the theatre will continue its policy of courteous treatment to all patrons. Mr. Micklin's rapidly growing lumber business made it impossible for him to continue in the theatre business. He bespeaks for Mr. Hartmann the continued and appreciated patronage of our people.
