Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. E. Handy

Subject: Jesus' Intercessory prayer.

Scripture Text: John 17

Memory Verse: "Holy Father keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are". John 17:11

The lesson in the present day application—All Bible students should read this prayer, again and again. Throughout the whole pages of the "Book" there will be found no more dignity, holiness or pathos.

Jesus, the very Son of God, while here on earth, constantly prayed to His Father. What an example for us.

This prayer however is not for Himself, but for His disciples and the church.

How comforting for His followers today. The Son is praying for us. Praying when we doubt, praying when we stumble and fall, praying when we lack faith, praying when we go astray.

The greatest single thought to my mind is that part where He asks the Father to make us one, even as the Father and He are one.

The devil has brought us into such desperate straits. So many creeds, isms and beliefs. This little congregation holding fast to this dogma, that church laying stress on another point, until the man of the world is made to wonder, just who is right.

In unison there would be strength.

God hasten the time, that we as Christians, regardless of race, may be one. One Lord, one faith, one baptism.

This is the proving ground for the life over there. We must be one here to be one over there.
