That girls Indian bracelets were made for girls to wear— That writing for a paper took brains and mentality.

Picnicked on the river
Spread cloth on the bank
Dropped lunch in the water
And it promptly sank.

Ran for the bus
Was almost there
When I tripped on my feet
And swallowed my face.

Jumped the hedge
Guess where I lit?
T'was a mud puddle
That I hit.

Bob is stalwart
Bob has brawn
Yet how he does wilt
Mowing the lawn.

Went to the show
What did I see?
A great big hat
In front of me.

I take cars apart
To tinker I ache
Very few I can't fix
Not one I cant break.

The boys on the street
How they do flirt
When they meet brown eyes
And black and white skirts.

Well I guess that is enough 'til next week.

BEAUTY and FASHION HINTS

Summer is here, and the torrid days of heat cannot help but make you uncomfortable. Here are a few tips that will help you to endure the heat and also keep you fresh and dainty.

An extra shower, the splash of cooling cologne (instead of perfume) the fresh nylons and clean white cotton gloves, the mid-day flick of powder in your sandals, the extra seconds for holding hot wrists under the cold water tap after washing your hands are all so relieving. Try the new liquid deodorant instead of the solid form. Try Revlon's fashion plate non-greasy creme face powder instead of your usual powder. A lighter shade of lipstick for summer wear and by all means spend a little time on your toe nails before wearing your sandals. Finger tips, lips, and toe nails all in the same shade of coloring makes a good show at any time.

Give your hair extra curl during the summer months. The sun and wind is very drying to the hair and scalp. Brush it more often, wash it more often, and keep it oiled with a very light oil.

GOP Still Silent on Negro Bills

Sounding off loudly over the veto of their pet tax "slash" bill, Republicans are eloquently silent over bill that would benefit and protect America's great minority group.

For 15 years, the Republicans in congress have been underdog minoritites and in that time, they clamored loudly and long for the passage of the anti-lynch and FEPC bills. They blamed southern Democrats for blocking the bills they had "nearest their hearts." What they would do when they got in power with these bills would make the Democrats look very cheap.

With only a few weeks to go before the adjournment there is little likelihood that the Republicans will enact any bill concerning lynching, poll-tax or setting up an FEPC. There is no hope for them at this session.

As one well known writer states, "... but now they are in majority, the Republicans are not so passionately eager to see these bills passed."
