Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Greene.

Greetings Gates:

This week I decided to add a little humor to my column so here it is. "Hope you like it." "Dad, we learnt at school today that animals have a new fur every winter."

"Be quiet! Your mother is in the next room."

Clerk, to farmer who is city shopping: "How about a nice snappy bathrobe, Hiram?"

Hiram: "Nothing doing, young man. When I take a bath I don't wear no clothes."

Farmer's Wife (to druggist): "Now be sure and write plain on them bottles which is for the horse and which is for my husband. I don't want nothin' to happen to that horse before spring plowin'."

Science professor: "What happens when a body is immersed in water?"

Coed: "The telephone rings."

A young lady who had never seen a game of baseball attended one with her escort.

"Isn't that pitcher grand?" she said. "He hits their bats no matter how they hold them!"

Old Maid: "Has the canary had its bath yet?"

Servant: "Yes, ma'am. You can come in now."

Farmer: "You can't go wrong on this mare. She's sound, gentle, a good worker, and a fine saddle horse."

City man: "I'll take your word for all that, but what I want to know is, is she tender?"

"English is a funny language, after all."

"Why so?"

"I heard a man talking of a political candidate the other day say: 'If he only takes his stand when he runs, he'll have a walk-over'."

A well-known analyst of retail sales points out that women spend 85 cents of every dollar. Such a wife is a jewel. So many spend $1.37.

"I just swatted five flies—two males and three females."

"Two on the card table and three on the mirror."

"A woman fell overboard from a ship yesterday, and a shark came up and looked her over and went away."

"He never touched her?"

"No. He was a man-eating shark."

Sonny—Dad, what do you call a man who drives a car?

Dad (a pedestrian)—It all depends on how close he comes to me, my boy.

Angel Pie

4 egg whites beaten stiff
1/2 teaspoon salt
Add 1 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup sugar—added slowly
Put in greased pie tin and bake in 250 degree oven for one hour. Cool.

4 egg yolks beaten light
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 tablespoons lemon juice
4 teaspoons grated lemon rind
Cook in double boiler until it thickens. Cool. 1/2 pint whipping cream (more if desired). Whip. Spread half of cream on pie, then lemon filling and remainder of cream on top. Put in refrigerator for 24 hours.

Chocolate Brownies.

Don't bake brownies too long; they should be moist and chewy.

2 1/2 oz. squares unsweetened chocolate
1/2 cup shortening
2 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped nuts
Melt chocolate and shortening over hot water. Beat eggs and sugar until thick and lemon-colored. Stir in cooled chocolate and fat, flour salt, vanilla and nuts. Pour into greased 8-inch square cake pan and bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 7 minutes. Cut in squares before cool. May be served with chocolate or served plain.

Mexican Beans.

1 16-oz can oven baked beans in tomato sauce
1 cup grated American cheese
1/2 green pepper, diced
Combine all ingredients and pour into greased casserole dish. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 45 minutes. Serves four.

Corned Beef Turnovers.

2 cups cooked corned beef, chopped
2 cups cooked potatoes, diced
2 1/2 tablespoons chopped onion
Salt and pepper
3/4 cup milk or stock
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
Mix corned beef, potatoes and chopped onion. Season to taste then moisten with milk or stock. Put small amount of fat in frying pan and heat. Spread corned beef mixture over pan evenly. Cook slowly until underside is well browned. Fold in half like an omelet and serve hot with chili sauce. Serves five.

Cooperation Wins on the Telephone Party Line, Too

Real teamwork is needed to win football games and for a smooth telephone party line. Today, continued shortages of vital materials make it possible for us to continue our expansion program only by party line telephone installations. So won't you please be a good party line neighbor. It means better telephone service for everyone—including you.
