Teen Age Chatter

By Freddie Powell.

Well as you know Dorothy Greene is back and she really had a fine time on her trip. She brought back a fine picture of a fellow named Leo—real sharp. She says she was glad to get back to Lincoln though. Can you really believe it?

Well as you know last week I had "The Prophecy" in and didn't have room for any other news, so here is last week's news. When you read it remember it happened LAST WEEK.

Saturday night at the Les Jeunes party Delores Bowen and Bill Darnell had on twin brown and white sweaters. What's to it?

Also noticed Verne Wilson in a most fine blue pin stripe suit. Haven't seen much of you lately, Verne. What's happening? Are you trying to get back home?

What is between Betty Bowman and Nate Casteel these days. They seem to be quite chummy.

Phyllis Holcomb travelled to Omaha Saturday. Where was George Saturday night?

Bernice Motley and Stella Woodlee stopped over in Lincoln Friday. We saw them with Richard Holcomb that night.

Who are known as the "Three G's?" Ask Betty Wilson.

Also looking fine in her new coat was Joyce Williams Sunday. It is wine with gray fur around the collar and on the pockets. Real sharp.

Now for this week's news:

On Saturday night Lois and Cecil Hatcher were host and hostess at an informal gathering at their home. Everyone had an enjoyable time.

The Kliques had a Valentine party on Monday night of this week at the home of Phyllis Holcomb. A vaudeville show was held during part of the evening where everyone had a chance to show his talent. All present had lots of fun. Valentine refreshments were served.

TO TEMPER. "When buying a new cast aluminum utensil it is best to temper it by placing on a burner and heating to cooking heat while empty and then cool gradually. Food will not stick from then on."

Jackie Robinson On Boy Scouts Program

NEW YORK. (ANP). Jackie Robinson, star second baseman of the Brooklyn Dodgers National league baseball team, was one of the prominent guests of honor at the 39th anniversary luncheon program of the Boy Scouts of America, held in Commodore hotel here last week. Principal speaker at the luncheon was Robert P. Patterson, former secretary of war.

Robinson was easily the most popular man at the luncheon. After the formal program was over, the scouts selected as their own added feature, the Negro baseball star. They chanted over and over again "We want Jackie," until the infielder came up on the stage to sign autographs and chat with them.

Others appearing on the program included Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, Jinx Falkenberg, radio and screen star; Rabbi Aryeh Lew, director of religious activities, National Jewish Welfare board; and Everett Clark, member of the Brooklyn Scouts' executive board.

Life of Gov-Gen. Eboue A "Must" In World History of the Negro

By Carter Jewell

NEW YORK. (ANP). Negroes have played an important role in the history of France, a fact which should be publicized during Negro History Week, which is to be observed Feb. 6-13.

Though a hard, imperialistic power over her Negro subjects in Africa, France has permitted a measure of recognition for some of the leaders of her subject peoples.

One of the most faithful and capable of the Negro leaders was Governor-General Felix Eboue of French Equatorial Africa, who died May 17, 1944. It was he who enabled Gen. Charles de Gaulle to fight back against the Axis powers from a protected base of operation in Africa during World War II.

Eboue became governor general in January, 1941. He demonstrated such a flair for administrative work that one citation said of him, "He had occasion to prove time and again that he possessed to the highest degree all the characteristics of a leader . . . he gave French Equatorial Africa one of the sources of its present wealth . . . he had Africa try the cultivation of cotton and obtained an overwhelming success."

Born Dec. 26, 1884, Eboue was assistant administrator of French Equatorial Africa in 1910, rose to administrator in January, 1917; became chief administrator, on Dec. 31, 1930; titular governor, Dec. 4, 1936, and governor general, Dec. 10, 1940.

Under his leadership, the whole of French Equatorial Africa and the Cameroon rallied to the Allied cause in August, 1941. He was an officer of the Legion of Honor, holder of many decorations and was made a companion of the Order of Liberation by Gen. de Gaulle at Brazzaville on July 14, 1941, the anniversary of the storming of the Bastille which liberated the French from the yoke of bondage.

Negro Appointed Physician to Philly Coroner

PHILADELPHIA. (ANP). Dr. C. G. Wooding, well-known pathologist, was sworn in as coroner's physician last Monday at a salary of $3,500 a year. This is the first time that a Negro has held this position in Pennsylvania.

Dr. Wooding's appointment came through the recommendation of William Upshur, leader of the 30th ward, and William Meade, Republican city chairman. Meade here insisted on the appointment of a Negro to this post and gave the appointment to Upshur.
