

Social Briefs

The Malone Missionary society of Quinn Chapel A.M.E. church will meet with Mrs. Eugene R. Edwards, 2420 P street this afternoon. The topic for discussion is "What Is a Goal?" In observance of Negro History week members have prepared to respond to roll call with quotations from Negro poets.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, Mrs. Eugenia Brown was the guest of Mrs. Katherine Lytle at the regular meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of St. Paul church. Afterward Mrs. Brown furnished music for the worship period that was centered about better race relations.

We saw Leroy Bookhardt with the University Singers, University of Nebraska top choral group, during the Fine Arts department presentation at the model UNESCO conference last Thursday night. Bookhardt, pre-med junior, was initiated into Alpha Phi Alpha recently.

Seen at the University of Nebraska model United Nation Educational Scientific and Cultural organization meetings last week were Jeanne Malone, Lasisi Akenfenwa, William Broaden, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Malone.

We are informed by reliable sources that Mrs. Eugenia Brown is now practice teaching at Lincoln high school. The U. of N. music senior assists with instruction for two choruses and the a cappella choir. She is believed to be the first Negro student to be given a practice teaching assignment at Lincoln high.

C. C. Galloway, publisher of The Omaha Guide, stopped in at "The Voice" office on Tuesday following the Fair Employment Practice hearing.

The Rev. and Mrs. John Favors of Omaha were Lincoln visitors on Saturday and also stopped in at The Voice office for a short visit.

Mrs. Portia Kennedy, Berkeley, Calif., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brooks recently. Mrs. Kennedy had been to Atlantic City.

The William Woods Usher Board and Auxiliary will give a reception Sunday, Feb. 27 from 4 until 6 p. m. at Quinn Chapel A.M.E. parsonage, 9th and C streets. Honorees will be the Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Brooks and family and Senator and Mrs. John Adams of Omaha. The public is invited according to a statement by Mrs. Kathryn Huston, chairman.

Mrs. Lela Becks and her daughter, Mrs. Louise Patterson of Beatrice, Neb., were Lincoln visitors on Sunday and worshipped at Quinn Chapel A.M.E. church.

Mrs. Anita Smith is reported very much improved after being confined to her home for the past week. Mrs. Smith is a graduate student at the University of Nebraska.

Senator John Adams and Mr. Felix Polk were dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Shakespeare Monday evening.

A business trip will be made during the week to Alliance, Neb., by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green. They expect to visit with friends before returning.

A 2 o'clock luncheon will be given Thursday honoring Mrs. William I. Monroe, by Mrs. John Miller. Mrs. Monroe is the wife of the Rev. Mr. Monroe, newly elected pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist church.

J. M. Hill, 74, Dies; Here for 40 Years

John Marshall Hill, 74, 2449 So. 9th, a resident of Lincoln since 1909, died at his home Sunday.

Mr. Hill was born May 6, 1874, at Erlington, Ky. He was a member of Newman Methodist church. He was employed at the Evans laundry for 25 years until he retired in 1940 after being injured.

Survivors include a stepson, Vernon Howard of Lincoln; adopted daughter, Mrs. Pearl Gaston of Los Angeles, and sisters, Mrs. Harvey Dunlap of Cincinnati, O., and Mrs. Lillian Hill Carr of Detroit, Mich.

Phyllis Holcomb really looked fine Sunday. She looked all of her 17 years with her green hat and brown fur around her green coat.

Teen Age Chatter

Hello—

You don't have to tell me, I know it. What? They My column was beat last week. So I'll try to make up for it this week. Here goes: Did you know that Lopy Finley is well on her way to the fame I prophesied for her in 'The Prophecy.' She was special guest soloist the past week.

On Saturday night, Susie Mae Whitehall, Lopy Finley and Loreta McWilliams won second prize singing. Each one of them has the privilege of getting a watch or ring.

Remember earlier this month I told you of two popular teenagers birthdays this month. Well one of them was Phyllis Holcomb whose birthday was February 20th. You'll have to wait until next week to find out the other one.

Phyllis was surprised with a birthday party at the Urban League Friday night given by Beverly and Richard. There were many people present and lots of fun happening. Her presents—oh, they were gorgeous. (Guess some one will have to give me a surprise birthday party on March 6.)

Several out-of-towners were here for the party, including Shirley Thomas of Omaha and Pat Herdon of Council Bluffs. (Happy, Richard?)

Betty Rose Huston was looking sharp at the party with her black and white dress. The black skirt was draped giving it that sophisticated look, while the bodice had a sprinkling of sequins.

On Saturday night Omaha boys were down and played basketball. They really played a fine game with our boys with the score 42-40 in their favor. Afterward a little get together was held in the gym.

Well here's something to close with:

A girl was asked to explain why men never kiss each other, while women do. She replied, "Men have something better to kiss, women haven't's. (Ha! Ha!) So long, FREDDIE.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Banana Sauce

1 large banana
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons heavy cream or evaporated milk
1 cup confectioners' sugar
Crush banana and add lemon juice. Add cream, beat vigorously. Add confectioners' sugar and beat until thoroughly mixed. Makes about 1 1/2 cups sauce for desserts or waffles.

Chocolate Sour Cream Cake

Cream together 1 teaspoon soft butter and 1 1/2 cups sugar. Add 2 well beaten eggs, beat and add 1 cup thick sour cream. Dissolve 1/2 cup cocoa and 1 teaspoon soda in 1/2 cup boiling water and add this to the mixture. Then beat in 2 cups flour sifted with 1 teaspoon baking powder.
Bake in loaf pan in medium oven about 25 minutes.

Uses for Egg Whites

Leftover egg whites may be used as a meringue for mashed sweet potatoes, for rice or bread pudding, or for topping baked pears or applesauce.

The following recipe was contributed by Mrs. Lydia M. Payne 2054 No. 6 Street, Kansas City, Kans.

A hot bun, or cold bun may be used. Get long bun like those used on hot dogs. Get them long and wide or oval shape.

Tuna fish
Green peppers
Celery (small quantity)
Onion (small quantity)
Salad dressing

Use the amount of the above ingredients according to the number of persons that are to be served. Mix all ingredients mentioned above, together with the salad dressing. Hollow out center of bun and put mixture inside. Place in a pan and put in the oven and warm nicely 5 or 10 minutes. Serve while warm or hot. This is a very good recipe.

I see where the Call is sponsoring a beauty contest. So why don't you girls get your pictures in. I know some person who has already done so.
