MRS. POLK RAISES FUNDS FOR CHURCH

Mrs. Polk.

Mrs. Sara Polk of 544 North 22nd Street, Lincoln, Nebraska, assistant cook at the Perry Mansfield Camps in Steamboat Springs, Colo., has a novel way of helping her home church through its financial difficulties. Mrs. Polk, who for twenty-seven years has been a member of the Quinn Chapel African Methodist Church of Lincoln, has provided a beautiful doll named Patty Jo with an extensive wardrobe and is selling tickets for Patty Jo. Mrs. Polk made all of Patty Jo's trousseau by hand.

It includes sixteen different garments: an overcoat and beret to match, a coat suit with beanie, two party dresses, two afternoon dresses, skirt and blouse, pinafore and bonnet, two play suits, two house dresses, a bathrobe, pajama suit, and a rain cape with hood.

The money collected from the Patty Jo project Mrs. Polk will contribute to the Communion Board of her home church for the purpose of buying a new communion service and for remodeling the church.

Mrs. Polk has been a member of the Quinn Chapel African Methodist Church since 1922. Her pastor is the Reverend J. B. Brooks of 1225 South 9th Street. She is the wife of Mr. Felix Polk, Lincoln.

She has been coming to the famous Perry Mansfield Theater School and Camp for the past six years and is held in high affection by the members of the camp staff and group.

Teen Age Chatter

By Dorothy Greene.

Greetings Gates:

Well the State Fair is one week closer, so you'd better make plans to attend this great event.

Miss Louise Venegar of Detroit, Mich., is making her home in Lincoln with her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Scott. She is the sister of Jeannette Venegar. We are happy to welcome her to our fair city.

Misses Ada Coffey and Martha Hammonds arrived Thursday to enter their three-years of Nurse Training at Bryan Memorial Hospital. Some of our teens have been showing them what a swell city Lincoln is.

For fashion of the week I have chosen what I think is a smart number. What do you think about it?

FASHION-OF-WEEK

SAVANNAH CLUB entertainer Roszetta Davis models a perfect two-piece shirtwaister for town or country in rayon shantung and linen. In grey and yellow or brown and turquoise. Sold in the home by representatives of Fashion -cks, Cincinnati.

Richard Holcomb was the dinner guest of Joyce Williams Sunday afternoon. I wonder if she cooked it?

Seen at Newman Church Sunday morning was none other than

R. J. Monroe and Mrs. T. Wallace, all of Alton, Ill. Rev. R. J. Monroe is the pastor of the church of God In Christ in Alton.

They are on their way back to Alton after spending time in several parts of the west visiting.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

By Mrs. Brevy Miller

Phone 2-4051

Again to that tiny little kitchen with its gay red and white curtains to plan the day's menu, with pleasure.

Delicate Grape Juice.

Fill boiling hot quart jar half full of washed stemmed blue grapes and add ¼ cup sugar to each jar and fill with boiling water and sear immediately. Grapes may be crushed or squeezed to give deeper color.

Quick Casserole.

1 cup condensed mushroom soup
¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 cup chopped cooked chicken
1 cup cooked or canned okra slices
Potato chips

Combine soup, milk and Worcestershire sauce. Add chicken and okra. Pour into well greased casserole. Bake in moderate oven. (350° F.). Top with potato chips. Bake 5 minutes. Serves four.

1-2-3-4 Sheet Cake.

1 cup butter
2 cups sugar
3 cups flour
4 eggs
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon soda
2 teaspoons cream of tartar (or 2 heaping teaspoons baking powder)

Makes large sheet cake—7x12½x2.

Banana Frosting.

1 medium-sized banana
1 teaspoon of lemon juice
2 to 3 cups confectioners' sugar

Mash banana with a silver fork, add lemon juice and whip with fork. Add sifted sugar slowly, beating until stiff enough to spread on cake.

Alex Strawn of St. Joseph, Mo., while one of his brothers James was sitting with several lovely ladies at Quinn Chapel.

Bettie Rose Huston left Monday for Omaha for a week's vacation in Omaha visiting friends.

I want all of you teens to buy tickets for the Quinn Chapel Senior Choir's Trip Around the World which will be August the 31st.

See you next week
