Mrs Favors Teaches All 'White Students' At Jackson, In Omaha Summer Session

MRS. KATHRYNE FAVORS.

By Rubie W. Shakespeare.
Mrs. Kathryn Favors, Omaha Teacher, had the privilege of teaching in the special reading clinic sponsored by the Omaha School System during the summer session at Jackson. Mrs. Favors states that the new method of teaching re-medial reading was thoroughly enjoyed by her pupils and the results were encouraging. Her entire class were all white children, and as a result of this interesting experience she found that children are alike regardless of race. During the whole summer, no one child mentioned that she was colored. They all accepted her on merit alone. The Omaha School System is to be commended.

Mrs. Favors is the wife of Mt. Zion's former pastor, the Rev. John S. Favors and both of them hold a Master's degree from the University of Nebraska and are looking forward to the time when they shall again be able to attend the University of Nebraska. Rev. and Mrs. Favors are writing a book for children concerning the Negro.

Mrs. Edwin Buxton and children Robert and Beverly were visiting Mrs. Buxton's grandmother, Mrs. Lulu Williams over the week end.

Mrs. Lulu Williams was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Joe Green on a trip to Ennis, Tex., Tuesday. They will spend an indefinite stay with another daughter, Mrs. J. M. Jackson, who has been ill for several months.

Entertains at Dinner Party

Miss Robbie Powell entertained six at a very elaborate dinner party Saturday evening, they were Misses Ada Coffey, Betty Wilson, Charlene Colbert, Martha Hammonds, Dorothy Greene and Freddie Powell.

The table was beautifully decorated with a lace covering and a center piece of fresh-garden flowers with a white candle on either side of the flower bowl.

The three course menu consisted of a Cocktail (fruit juice), fried chicken, sweet potatoe with marshmallow, corn on the cob, peas, gravy, hot rolls, butter and jelly and a lovely relish dish, to end this lovely dinner, for dessert there was cake topped with ice cream and strawberries.

During the first course Freddie walked in as great surprise to her family, she got the Labor day holiday away from school.

After dinner the girls talked and listened to some fine records.
