Teen Age Chatter

By Eloise Finley

Hi Teens:
Well another week has rolled around.

Wednesday many teens were at the Urban League to hear the Deep River Singers, including Vonna Finley and Albert Bowen; Phyllis Holcomb and George Alexander. They seem to have enjoyed the program very much.

Arriving home Thursday, May 4, from San Diego and San Francisco were Bobby Finney home for 30 days leave and Charles Finney who has been discharged. I know a certain girl who will be down very soon from Omaha, don't you? Smiles.

Sunday visiting in Lincoln were Chester Scott's sisters, Florence and Clara Bell both of Omaha.

It comes time again to have another girl and boy of the month Girl of the month—Betty Bowman.

Boy of the month—James Ware.

Nicest couple of the month is—Phyllis Holcomb and George Alexander.

Five most popular record of the month are:

1. It Isn't Fair, 2; Almost Lost My Mind, 3; My Foolish Heart, 4; I'll Get Along Some How, 5; So Long — ing, returning by way of Council Bluffs, Ia., where they joined other Lincolnites for a picnic at Playland Park in Omaha. Those picnicking with the Botts were Frank Nevells, Tony Smith, Collins Davis, Betty Wilson, Howard Bean and Verne Wilson.

Charles Goolsby attended the biological medical science section of the Nebraska Academy of Science held at the Nebraska Wesleyan University, Friday and Saturday of last week.

200 Applaud Miss Scott, Mezzo-soprano

Almost 200 persons expressed their approval of the singing of Miss Clara Belle Scott, young mezzo-soprano from Omaha, last Sunday evening as she was presented in a concert at Quinn Chapel church. Quinn Chapel ushers sponsored the event. Miss Scott displayed a warmth of tone unusual at her age, smoothness and good breath control. The smoothness of her progression and flexibility together with her other qualities certainly point to Miss Scott as one of the most promising voices heard here. In reply to the enthusiastic applause, she offered "My Friend" (Mallotte) as an encore.

A beautiful bouquet of spring flowers was presented at the end of the second intermission by H. O. McField, president of the usher board. Miss Doris Darling accompanied at the piano. The program was as follows:

- I
- Into the Night Edwards
 - Because D'Hardelot
 - A Brown Bird Singing Wood
 - Morning Speaks
- II
- Group 11:
 - Carissima Penn
 - Bless This House Braha
 - Were You There Burleigh
 - Swing Low Sweet Chariot Burleigh
- III
- Lord's Prayer Malotte
 - I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked... O'Hara
 - Holy City Adams
