Sunday School Lesson

Micah's Hope of God's Salvation.
Scripture—Micah 4:1-5, 5:2-4; 7:18-20.

Memory Selection—Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, . . . he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. Micah 7:18.

Micah's vision of World Peace. Micah had come very close to the heart of God in his yearning over Judah, and he learned that God's plan for his people was almost too great to be comprehended. His vision of peace is one of the great tasks which is still before the nations of the world. Micah did not outline an elaborate organization of the nations. He knew that organization would be a necessity for a peaceful world. But there must be underneath all organization the foundation of a common faith. Without that the best designed organization will be only a paper scheme, lifeless and powerless. Fear of war is not a firm foundation, nor for that matter, is love of peace. There must be a law above all national ambitions and all selfish desires. To the prophet there was no adequate source of such a law but God.

Can we learn this lesson for our day? Or are we doomed to wander in the wilderness on to destruction in the futile attempt to build a world order while still clinging to the idea that we can have America first, or another other nation first, with the world always second. Can we find a Power to whom all nations are willing to bow the knee?

Micah's vision of world peace seems to have hung on the horizon like an alluring light in the dark days of war. See Isaiah 2:1-4, where the same message in almost the same words is given. What a light it has been down through the ages! It has been like a mirage which has lured us on, and yet we believe and know that it is indeed real and that some day it will be true. Micah wished to see his nation strong and incincible, but he wanted above all to see it righteous and God-fearing. So would we like to see our nation. In the words of Bishop Oldham we would like to see America first.

God has a plan for us. A part of that plan is a world of peace, security and brotherhood for all

OMAHA, NEB.—BETHEL A.M.E. CHURCH

The pastor and congregation of the Bethel A.M.E. church is very much elated over the many new provisions it has received. The choir, made up of young people, have furnished the church with an organ, a new heating system and a bulletin board. The Sunday school is buying a new moving picture machine. The Rev. W. A. Fowler is pastor of the church. Representatives were in attendance at the quarterly meeting at Quinn Chapel in Lincoln May 24th.

mankind. We are a part of that plan and must co-operate and do all that we can to help. Christ commanded, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations." It is a part of His plan that Christians should be active in seeing that all men know the Gospel that they might be guided by it in all their dealings. Do you look for the smallest coin you have when the Missionary offering plate is passed? How do you answer the appeal made for Missions in your church? All of this ties in with your part of God's plan. It is a part of His plan that His church and the Christians who compose it should live up to the standards proclaimed by Christ, and that they do their part to rectify the injustices and disorders of society. God's purposes concerning the world may be delayed and thwarted by you—by your failure as a professed Christian. Do not let this happen.

What's Doing In the Churches

QUESTION: Why I Go To Church?
I go to church for spiritual inspiration and guidance, and for the belief I have in the Holy Bible. Fred Nevels, sr.

I go to church because it helps me face the rest of the week happier and gives me peace of mind after I attend. Mrs. June Campbell.

I go to church because it is the house of the Lord and it is where I get my spiritual food. Where the Shepherd feeds and assemble myself with the Saints of God. Mrs. Harry Adams.

I go to church to get the spiritual teachings I need to make me a better Christian from day to day, to live with my fellowmen and to learn to get along with all mankind. Going to church on Sunday, tends to make my whole week more successful, but when I miss going, it seems my days are all wrong for the week. It teaches me the love of Christ, his sacrifice of His life, that we, as Christians should try each and every day to live in a way the Master can use us. Raymond Botts.

I go to church because I love the Lord, and His house should be a house of prayer for all nations. It refreshes my spirit and I learn more about God's word. I find rest, peace and joy in the church that I can not find elsewhere. Mrs. H. C. King.

June 1, 1930, I became to know the Lord as my personal Savior, being sanctified through the blood of Jesus and then receiving the Holy Ghost according to Acts 1:8. One day I made a vow to the Lord. In order to keep that vow,

I must be obedient to the word of God, that I might be able to live a life that is pleasing to Him and that will be an example to others. Therefore, I go to church to worship God in spirit and in truth as stated in St. John 4:24. Hebrews 10:25 reads as follows: "We must not forsake the assembling of ourselves together." Mrs. Frank Williams, sr.
I go to church for the inspirational uplifting it gives to my heart and soul, because, it is the House of Our Lord, and Savior, who triumphant over death and the grave and His infinite Spirit liveth forever in His Holy Temple which is the church. Mrs. Joseph L. Dunn.
