Arizona Votes for Jimcrow Schools

PHOENIX—(ANP) — Citizens of the state of Arizona solidly voted against repeal of laws requiring segregated schools for Negroes in the state, but did elect two Negroes to the state legislature.

In an intensive vote on a measure prohibiting jim crow in public schools because of race, religion, or national origin, Arizona refused to pass it by a 2 to 1 margin.

Not only are -Negroes segregated in many parts of this state, but Spanish-Americans also are jimcrowed. In many communities in the state the law is disregarded, but in Phoenix is maintained the only segregated senior high school in the state.

Sunday School Lesson

Christian Worship.
Scripture—Isaiah 1:11-17; Luke 4:16; John 4:19-26; 1 Corinthians 11:17-34; Colossians 3:16; Hebrews 10:23-25.

Memory Selection: God is a Spirit; and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth. John 4:24.

Present Day Application By Frederick D. Jordan Los Angeles, California

Today's lesson brings to our attention still another important way of growing as a Christian. Fellowship with other Christians in Worshipping God is a source of spiritual strength. Christians ought to attend public worship services unless they are physically unable to do so, or are prevented by circumstances beyond their control. A real love for God will create a love for His House. It will create a longing for a place of worship with others who know the Lord. Private devotions and radio sermons cannot ever take the place of the Christian fellowship that is a large factor in making worship worth while. Public worship is a great privilege in spite of the way some people ignore it. The pattern of early Christian worship contained much more lay participation than we have now. There must be something more than formal routine services in our churches if our members are to be kept spiritually alive. Laymen should take advantage of every opportunity afforded for prayer and testimony. The value of worship to a Christian depends upon his own spiritual preparation and attitude of mind. His motive for attending church as well as the extent of his participation in the service will determine the inspiration and profit that he receives.

Texas and Maryland Decisions Stand

Thurgood Marshall, NAACP special counsel, expressed gratification that the United States Supreme Court denied to the University of Maryland a review of a Maryland Court of Appeals decision ordering the admission of Miss Esther McCready to the university's nursing school, and refused to the State of Texas a rehearing of the case of Heman Marion Sweatt, whose admission to the University of Texas Law school was ordered by the high tribunal last June. Miss McCready and Mr. Sweatt have been attending classes at these respective universities.

The total number of southern states which have relaxed the ban on Negro students in their state-supported universities directly or indirectly as a result of NAACP action now stands at eleven. Negroes are attending classes at the Universities of Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Virginia, Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware. Louisiana State University was ordered to admit Negroes this week, and the attorney general of Tennessee has advised officials of the University of Tennessee that that institution can no longer deny admission to qualified students because of race.

JOHN ADAMS

John Adams, incumbent, won in the election, in a lesser lead over Harry Foster, for a second term as senator representing the Fifth District.

Senator Adams was the first Negro member of the Nebraska legislature since his son, John, jr., represented the Fifth district in 1936.

He introduced the F.E.P. bill in the last session of the senate.

Last week-end found the curtain being rung down on many of the prep gridirons. The boys have played well. They have thrilled many with the most razzle dazzle season yet to be seen anywhere.

The Bluebirds of Cathedral high finished by whipping Lawrence to the tune of 34 to 25 with an impressive season of 7 wins, 1 loss.

Northeast journeyed to Omaha to give the fans a look at a state champion. While there they took time out to wallop Creighton Prep to the tune of 38 to 6. They, too, closed their season with a clean slate.

Lincoln high journeyed to Grand Island to meet a stubborn gang and had to battle all the way to earn a tie at 14-all.

College View was not fortunate as they ran into a rough and ready Ashland crew and were dumped 14-12.

Meanwhile out at Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon, Coach Bill Glassford's razzle dazzle Huskers, led by ramblin' Robert Reynolds, bounding Nick Adduci, will-o-the-wisp Bloom and flinging Fran Nagle, came to life and exploded in the second half to stun an alert K-State that had stolen the show in the first half. With K-State there was still Robinson, doing a yeoman's job at center, the only Negro first stringer in the Big Seven. If you are looking for thrills, follow the Huskers.

Over in Iowa Johnny Bright of Drake University scored four touchdowns to whip Iowa State College, a member of the Big Seven Conference. In doing so he set a new national record for net yardage gained by an individual, traveling some 2,400 yards this season against 2,187 yards set by Frankie Sinkwich of Georgia. The

NSA Has Negro Secretary

MADISON, Wis. (ANP). The National Student association will have a Negro girl as executive secretary in 1951 when new officers take over. She is Miss Shirley Neizer of Simmons college in Massachusetts.

Negro flash passed and ran his team to all its scores.

Jethroe Voted Rookie of the Year

NEW YORK. (ANP). Sam Jethroe, speedy centerfielder of the Boston Braves, was voted by the Baseball Writers association as the National league's rookie of the year.

Purchased by the Brave from the Brooklyn Dodgers for more than $100,000, Jethroe started out poorly in spring training but improved as the season advanced.

He led the league in stolen bases with 35, more than twice as many as the American league leader, Phil Rizzuto of the New York Yankees. Jethroe also pounded out 18 home runs to show unexpected power at the plate.

Jackie Named Major All Star 2nd Baseman

NEW YORK. (ANP). Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers last week was voted by the writers of the Associated Press to the Major league all star baseball team as the all star second baseman.

Ironically enough, two weeks ago sports writers failed to vote Jackie the all National league post at the keystone sack.

Jackie polled 170 votes to only 85 for Eddie Stanky of the New York Giants, the man who beat him out in the all league vote.

Catcher Roy Campanella of the Dodgers lost out in his bid for all star catcher to Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees.

Centerfielder Larry Doby of the Cleveland Indians did a reverse of Robinson. He ranked fourth in votes for the all-major league outfield, being beaten out by Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees. In a previous vote, Doby had displaced DiMaggio on the American league team.
