Sunday School Lesson

THE RESTORATION OF JERUSALEM
Scripture—Ezra 1-5-6: Nehemiah 4-6-8-9.
Memory Selection—They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint. Isaiah 40:31.

PRESENT DAY APPLICATION BY FREDERICK D. JORDAN
Los Angeles, Calif.

Nothing happens about any bad situation until somebody decides to make the sacrifice of their own comfort and convenience to do something about it. The exile of the Jews had a profound effect upon them, it bound the nation closer together. Many scholars say that the Babylonian captivity was one of the most productive experiences of their history. The writings of some of their great prophets came out of it and their concept of God was enlarged and enriched by those experiences. At its best all punishment should be designed for constructive purposes. The remnant that returned at the end of the exile to re-establish the nation was small, but this remnant was cleansed of most of the evils that brought disaster to their nation. We have the hope Christians that out of the present chaos may come a more hopeful order. The returned exiles first built an altar and laid the foundations of the Temple—they have had learned the value of putting first things first. We too need to learn this lesson, and while seeking to build a strong Christian character, to learn the necessity of protecting ourselves from evil influences and temptations.

The center of a standard baseball is a piece of cork the size of a marble which has been aged for 15 years.

IN MEMORIAM

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so I would have told you. . . . And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto Myself, where I am, there ye may be also. St. John 14:2, 3.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written. Death is swallowed up in victory. I. Corinthians 15: 53, 54.

I long for household voice gone,
For vanished smiles I long,
But God hath led my dear ones on,
And he can do no wrong.
