Jersey Joe Will Try to Regain His Title

PHILADELPHIA — (ANP) — Jersey Joe Walcott, dethroned as heavyweight champion of the world by a 13th round kayo at the hands of Rocky Marciano, declared a couple of days after the fight that he will try to become the first heavyweight king to regain his throne.

Age and Rocky's might right hand caught up with Jersey Joe the night of Sept. 23, in 43 of the 13th round after the ancient champion had led all the way in a brilliant defense of his title.

Because of the suddenness and apparent finality of the kayo blow, Walcott's manager, Felix Boccicchio, had declared after the title bout that his fighter was retiring.

Walcott, however, reversed this statement, after convincing his manager that he still was a good fighter and would be in no danger in a rematch. The rematch is slated tentatively for Jan. 31, 1953 in Miami, Fla. or at a somewhat later date in Chicago at the Chicago Stadium.

The contract for the title bout gave Walcott the right to a rematch within 90 days if he so demanded. His decision means that such men as Rex Layne, Ezzard Charles and Roland LaStarza will have to wait until Marciano can dispose of Walcott a second time or these two finally quit in a series of bouts.

A crowd of 40,379 fans paid $504,645 to see what probably was one of the greatest heavyweight championship fights of all times at the Municipal stadium.

Jersey Joe, who tells the world he is 38 years old, but whom many believe to be several years older, rocked the stadium when he blasted Marciano, 28, to the canvas in the first round for a count of five. Marciano, youthful, bullish, and unbelievably strong, got up, however, and came back fighting.

Possibly caution kept Jersey Joe from rushing right in for the kill when Rocky rose from the canvas in the first round.

United Chest, Red Cross Drive Goal Is $467,653

A goal of $467,653 has been set for the united campaign of the Lincoln Community Chest and the Red Cross for 1953.

Of this goal for the 30 agencies, $110,000 is the Red Cross amount, Albert A. Held, president of the Chest, explained.

"The total goal, therefore, is only a small amount more than was raised by the Chest and the Red Cross for funds in 1952," he said.

Last year the Chest goal was $342,684, and the Red Cross goal was $106,000.

Slight increases in the Chest agencies' budgets are due to increased costs of agency services,

Held said. He reminded the public that to meet this combined goal, all previous donors would have to contribute at least the same amounts as before but in one campaign.

Members of the budget committee for the Community Chest and Council of Social Agencies, headed by co-chairmen Robert Simon and A. C. Glandt, are:

Mrs. J. Knox Jones, William Haydon, Garrett Vryheit, Elvin Wait, George Randol, Carl D. Ganz, Mrs. E. A. Frerichs, Herbert Henderson, Ed Becker, George X. Smith, Mrs. Ellery Hall Davis, Clara Miskell and the Rev. David Gracey.

Bishop Clair Named on Committee

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Bishop Matthew W. Clair Jr., resident prelate of the St. Louis Area of the Methodist church, was elected the representative of the Central Jurisdiction on the Administrative Committee of the Committee of Fifty that was ordered by the San Francisco General conference "to inaugurate, implement and carry out" American Methodism's share of the 1953 world-wide evangelistic program.

Bishop Clair's appointment to this important Methodist committee was made in a meeting of the committee of 50 which met recently in Washington, D. C., in the denomination's Board of Temperance Building, at the call of the Board of Evangelism. Bishop W. Angie Smith of Oklahoma City was elected to lead the movement.

This evangelistic emphasis, which coincides with the 250th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, was launched in Oxford, England, last summer at the eighth World Methodist conference.

Virginia NAACP in Drive To Get Negroes to Polls

RICHMOND, Va. (ANP)—State and local officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in Virginia are the midst of a state-wide registration drive to get all qualified Negroes in the state to register to vote on Nov. 4.

Amos C. Clark, secretary of the Franchise Committee of the Richmond Civic Council and a leader in the Virginia Civic League estimates that between 65,000 and 70,000 Negroes in Virginia have paid their poll taxes. Many of these persons, however, have never registered.
