Carlene Foxall was an outstanding member of the special rope-jumping team which performed at the half-time of last Monday's basketball game. The team, in uniform, jumps through a difficult and sparkling routine using various fancy types of rope turning. Nice work, Carl!

Sylvia Graves and Gertrude Collier from Omaha visited Shirley Thomas, a commercial arts major, and her cousin, Beverly Holcomb of Lincoln, here last week. The girls enjoyed an informal get-together Saturday night at the home of Beverly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Holcomb.

Joan McCaw, Paul Kidd, Charles McAfee, and Jon McWilliams went to Omaha to see the basketball battle between Omaha U. and Wichita U. Charles is from Wichita, Kansas. Oline Foxall and Winifred Winston were also in Omaha this week end.

A mid-term vote of thanks to the Student Union of the University of Nebraska. Each student pays for a Student Union membership in the matriculation fee, which entitles him to all the facilities offered: ping-pong, television, cards, the Book Nook and the Music Room. The Corn Crib, a soda and cold lunch fountain, and the Round-Up which serves hot meals three times daily, is operated for the students' convenience at low prices. The Union sponsors special programs during the year which vary from a formal concert by the University Singers to a pop appearance by Vaughn Monroe and a night club party featuring Cliff Dudley.
