

CHILD KILLED WHEN CARS CRASH

Coolidge to Stay on Job in Campaign

Executive Duties to Receive First Attention—President to Make Less Than Dozen Speeches.

Dawes' Itinerary Planned

Washington, July 22.—Participation by President Coolidge in the national campaign is expected to be limited to less than a dozen speeches and to involve no extended campaign tours.

Important Speech August 14

Definite plans, such as dates and places for the addresses to be made by Mr. Coolidge have not been formulated, although the subject was discussed at last night's conference between the president and Chairman Butler.

To Confer With Dawes.

Arrangements for the speaking activities of Charles G. Dawes, the republican vice presidential candidate, have not been definitely made, but Mr. Butler left Washington today for Chicago to confer with Mr. Dawes and to resume charge of the national headquarters of the party which have been established in that city.

SLAYER SUSPECT SOUGHT BY POSSE

Union, S. C., July 22.—An armed posse led by Department of Justice agents, members of the sheriff's office and local police is scouring the woods one mile south of the Excelsior Mills for Frank Harrell, alleged assassin of Mortimer H. King, in the slaying of Major Samuel McLeary, following the arrest today of Larry Johnson, 17, a mill worker, while taking a bag containing food to Harrell.

We Have With Us Today

Arthur T. Holmes, Attorney. Mr. Holmes is a member of the noted law firm of Morris, Winter, Eech & Holmes.

Protective Measures Suggested by Burglars Adopted at Bedford

Bedford, Ia., July 22.—When Harry Maybe of Council Bluffs was sent to Fort Madison for burglary here last month, he suggested an increase in night watches here. The council today appointed another officer. Maybe and his two pals, who were also sent to prison, left many suggestions for ridding the city of crime, and others are being taken up, especially a plan for lighting alleys.

Three Killed, 70 Hurt When Two Steamers Crash

Captain and Wireless Operator Stick to Posts When Tanker Rams Passenger Vessel.

Fall River, Mass., July 22.—Mrs. Oscar Green of Brooklyn, N. Y., was killed in her berth on the steamer "Arrow" in the collision with the Swift Arrow last night. This was learned when her husband arrived here today on one of the rescue steamers.

By Associated Press.

Newport, R. I., July 22.—Three persons were killed, one woman and two men, when the new passenger liner Boston of the Eastern Steamship company was rammed by the oil tanker Swift Arrow off Point Judith in a heavy fog, according to word brought here today by Lieutenant Page, ship's doctor of the United States steamship Wright.

Nickel Between Them.

They left their homes in St. Louis last Saturday. Coming to the Nebraska side of the river, they found on taking a brief inventory, that they had a lone nickel between them.

ARTIST IS HELD ON BAD MONEY CHARGE

London, July 22.—A sensation has been created in artistic circles in London by the arrest of Harold Jacobus, an American artist, charged with making counterfeit treasury bills.

LAWYERS GUESTS OF U. S. ENVOY

London, July 22.—Ambassador and Mrs. Kellogg were hosts this afternoon to the visiting American lawyers. The pleasant gardens of Crewe house were crowded until a severe hail and rain storm drove everybody indoors.

University Head, Injured in Car Crash, Improving

Rock Springs, Wyo., July 22.—The condition of Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president of Washington and Lee university at Lexington, Va., was reported improving late today by attending physicians. Dr. Smith is in a hospital here as a result of injuries he sustained in an automobile accident Friday morning.

Judge Colby Improves.

Beatrice, Neb., July 22.—Judge L. W. Colby of this city, who recently underwent a serious operation at Rochester, Minn., was given a blood transfusion, according to a message received here by relatives, who feel hopeful over his condition, which is reported improving.

Boy Hiker Browns in Missouri

Lacked Bridge Toll and Attempted to Swim River—Caught in Current.

John Sullivan, 19, St. Louis, Mo., was drowned in the Missouri river within 100 feet of the Douglas street bridge about Tuesday afternoon when, lacking toll, he attempted to swim the swift stream.

Andrew Daniels, 17, his companion, who was swimming by the Douglas street bridge, but was too exhausted by the swim to aid his pal.

Twenty Men See Him.

The drowned boy, Daniels and Lester De Suz, 20, St. Louis, were "bumming" their way to the harvest fields of South Dakota.

PARENTS, BABY DROWNED.

Boulder, Colo., July 22.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker and their 2-year-old son, Richard, of Harlock, Neb., were drowned shortly before noon today in Strapp's lake, a summer resort 22 miles west of Boulder, according to word received here this afternoon by Coroner L. B. Kelso.

State Has 81 Witnesses.

The courtroom, where will be decided the punishment to be meted out for one of the most startling and sensational crimes in Chicago's history, was given over today to carpenter and wire men who were busy installing benches, telegraph circuits and seats for one of the largest assemblies of writers in the history of local courts.

GOVERNOR FREES LAS VEGAS EDITOR

Santa Fe, N. M., July 22.—Governor J. F. Hinkle today issued a pardon to Carl C. Magee, editor of the Albuquerque State Tribune, who earlier today had been found guilty of contempt of court by District Judge D. J. Leahy at Las Vegas, N. M., and sentenced to three months in jail.

Farlow Revisits Wymore.

Wymore, Neb., July 22.—Willard F. Farlow, former veteran Burlington railway roadmaster of Wymore, who was retired by the railway company here after 43 years' continuous service, is in Wymore visiting friends.

Church Burned in Storm.

Wymore, Neb., July 22.—Evangelical church in the north part of Herkimer, Kan., was struck by lightning and burned in an electrical storm Saturday.

Married in Council Bluffs.

The following persons obtained marriage licenses in Council Bluffs yesterday:

Degree of "Moral Turpitude" of Boy Slayers on Fix Fate

Question Will Decide Franks Kidnapers or Go to Prison, Experts Say.

Chicago, July 22.—Fixing of the degree of "moral turpitude" may be the legal problem by which will be determined the ultimate fate of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, who kidnaped and killed young Robert Franks for a thrill.

Hammill Named to Carry Iowa G. O. P. Standard

Lieutenant Governor Chosen as Gubernatorial Nominee—Plan to Fight Brookhart Fail.

Des Moines, July 22.—Without a contest that required more than two ballots for a nomination, the republican state convention today selected Lieutenant Governor John Hammill, of Britt, as the party's gubernatorial nominee for the November election.

Rebels Retreat Into Sao Paulo

Santos, Brazil, July 22.—Reliable information received today from Sao Paulo is to the effect that the government forces have recaptured several outlying sections of the city from the rebels and are bringing up heavy artillery and placing it at strategic points commanding rebel strongholds.

Calvin Coolidge Grave to Be Guarded All Summer

Plymouth, Vt., July 22.—The military guard which has been doing duty at the grave of Calvin Coolidge, Jr., son of the president, will be continued through the summer, it was learned today.

Stock Shipments Heavy.

Ponca, Neb., July 22.—Fifteen cars of stock were shipped out of this place during the past week. Indications are for a stronger run this week, due to the advance in the market, especially for hogs.

Quake in Ecuador.

Quayaquil, Ecuador, July 22.—An earthquake of considerable violence was felt in many sections of the country last night. Telegraphic communication from here to Quito was interrupted but no other damage was reported.

Quayquil, Ecuador, July 22.—An earthquake of considerable violence was felt in many sections of the country last night.

Quayquil, Ecuador, July 22.—An earthquake of considerable violence was felt in many sections of the country last night.

Quayquil, Ecuador, July 22.—An earthquake of considerable violence was felt in many sections of the country last night.

Quayquil, Ecuador, July 22.—An earthquake of considerable violence was felt in many sections of the country last night.

Quayquil, Ecuador, July 22.—An earthquake of considerable violence was felt in many sections of the country last night.

Leopold and Loeb Plan to Be Prison "Heroes"

Chicago, July 22.—Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, whose punishment for the kidnaping and murder of 14-year-old Robert Franks is to be determined by Judge Covery, are looking forward eagerly to a lifetime in Joliet penitentiary.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Leopold has already made inquiry concerning scientific instruments and scientific books.

Moorhead in Race for Bryan Job

Petitions Circulated for Former Election Commissioner—Stephens' Candidacy Gathers Strength.

The proverbial calm before a storm was noted in political circles Tuesday, two days in advance of the meeting of the democratic state central committee at Lincoln called for the purpose of choosing a successor to Governor Bryan on the state ticket.

Norton Stock Down

The great trouble is so many Omaha men want to get notice on the first ballots," Hopkins said. The Stephens candidacy launched Monday following a visit of the former congressman from Fremont to the office of Arthur Mullen, boss of the anti-Bryan forces, continued to gather momentum.

Morehead Still Mentioned.

The Stephens candidacy launched Monday following a visit of the former congressman from Fremont to the office of Arthur Mullen, boss of the anti-Bryan forces, continued to gather momentum.

Morehead Still Mentioned.

The Stephens candidacy launched Monday following a visit of the former congressman from Fremont to the office of Arthur Mullen, boss of the anti-Bryan forces, continued to gather momentum.

Morehead Still Mentioned.

The Stephens candidacy launched Monday following a visit of the former congressman from Fremont to the office of Arthur Mullen, boss of the anti-Bryan forces, continued to gather momentum.

Morehead Still Mentioned.

The Stephens candidacy launched Monday following a visit of the former congressman from Fremont to the office of Arthur Mullen, boss of the anti-Bryan forces, continued to gather momentum.

Morehead Still Mentioned.

The Stephens candidacy launched Monday following a visit of the former congressman from Fremont to the office of Arthur Mullen, boss of the anti-Bryan forces, continued to gather momentum.

Morehead Still Mentioned.

The Stephens candidacy launched Monday following a visit of the former congressman from Fremont to the office of Arthur Mullen, boss of the anti-Bryan forces, continued to gather momentum.

Omaha Grain Receipts and Prices

Receipts at the Omaha Grain exchange show 11 cars of wheat and 14 cars of corn were received Tuesday, compared to 26 cars of wheat and 21 cars of corn on the corresponding day of the previous week.

Bankers Balk at Underwriting Big Loan to Germany

The bankers declared that the report of the committee left loopholes for further independent action by France and declined to guarantee underwriting the proposed $200,000,000 loan to Germany.

Financiers Claim Allies' Plan Leaves Loophole for France—U. S. Will Submit Substitute.

By ROBERT J. PREW, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. London, July 22.—American and British bankers today took control of the fate of the London conference.

More Than $75,000 IS TAKEN IN FINES

The fiscal year ending June 30 closed with a record of $76,250 in fines, according to the report of the United States district attorney's office.

ATTORNEYS STAGE BATTLE IN COURT

Chicago, July 22.—Two of Chicago's most prominent attorneys engaged in a fist fight in Judge John J. Sullivan's court today when the trial of Cook county's most sensational divorce suit of the summer was resumed.

SHORTHILL RAPS BIG GRAIN MERGER

J. W. Shorthill, secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska State Farmers' Cooperative Grain and Livestock association, joined C. J. Osborne, president of the Farmers' Union, in issuing a warning to farmers to stop, look and listen before investing in the $26,000,000 stock selling scheme launched by five Chicago and Kansas City elevator companies who propose to sell their holdings to farmers.

POLICE AIRPLANE PATROL ON JOB

New York, July 22.—A police air patrol of six planes was placed in service today by Police Commissioner Enright in a campaign against the recharging by boats of blizz off in the harbor and surrounding waters and to enforce the ordinances against low flying in airplanes over the city.

WILLA CATHER AT RED CLOUD

Red Cloud, Neb., July 22.—Willa Cather, Nebraska's celebrated novelist, is spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cather. Her parents will leave here for Ann Arbor, Mich., where she will receive the honorary degree of doctor of letters from the University of Michigan. She has already received this degree from the University of Nebraska, her alma mater.

Government Defeated Again.

London, July 22.—Ambassador Kellogg today presented a proposal to break the deadlock in the inter-allied conference on the guarantees for the German loan.

Mother of Boy Driver of Machine

Youngster Pinned Beneath Wreckage—Dies After Being Taken to Hospital.

A collision between a truck and a car driven by Mrs. T. C. Healy, 4601 North Thirty-seventh street, late yesterday afternoon cost the life of her son, Thomas, 4. The boy died within a few hours after he had been removed from the overturned car, beneath which he was pinned.

Had Skull Fractured

The car in which the child was riding was overturned and the boy was pinned beneath. He was extricated and rushed to Lister Hospital where examination showed that his skull had been fractured. He died without recovering consciousness.

MORE HAN $75,000 IS TAKEN IN FINES

The fiscal year ending June 30 closed with a record of $76,250 in fines, according to the report of the United States district attorney's office.

ATTORNEYS STAGE BATTLE IN COURT

Chicago, July 22.—Two of Chicago's most prominent attorneys engaged in a fist fight in Judge John J. Sullivan's court today when the trial of Cook county's most sensational divorce suit of the summer was resumed.

POLICE AIRPLANE PATROL ON JOB

New York, July 22.—A police air patrol of six planes was placed in service today by Police Commissioner Enright in a campaign against the recharging by boats of blizz off in the harbor and surrounding waters and to enforce the ordinances against low flying in airplanes over the city.

WILLA CATHER AT RED CLOUD

Red Cloud, Neb., July 22.—Willa Cather, Nebraska's celebrated novelist, is spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Cather. Her parents will leave here for Ann Arbor, Mich., where she will receive the honorary degree of doctor of letters from the University of Michigan. She has already received this degree from the University of Nebraska, her alma mater.

Government Defeated Again.

London, July 22.—Ambassador Kellogg today presented a proposal to break the deadlock in the inter-allied conference on the guarantees for the German loan.

Hiram Mum on Politics.

Sacramento, Cal., July 22.—Senator Hiram W. Johnson, returning to California today, declared to discuss national politics, declaring it is too early to predict or prognosticate on the issues of the campaign. He said he would give his views on national politics after a rest at his home in San Francisco.

Kellogg Plan Presented. London, July 22.—Ambassador Kellogg today presented a proposal to break the deadlock in the inter-allied conference on the guarantees for the German loan.

The Weather

For 24 hours ending 7 p. m. July 22:
Precipitation, inches and hundredths: Total, 0.0; since January 1, 12.94; deficiency, .36.

Hourly Temperatures.
5 a. m.	57
6 a. m.	58
7 a. m.	59
8 a. m.	60
9 a. m.	61
10 a. m.	62
11 a. m.	63
12 noon.	64
1 p. m.	65
2 p. m.	66
3 p. m.	67
4 p. m.	68
5 p. m.	69
6 p. m.	70