

C. of C. Will Give Cups to Boys at Training Camp

C. M. T. C. Students With Parents Will Be Guests at Luncheon Monday Noon.

Douglas county's 117 young men who are enrolled for the citizens' military training camps next month will be the guests of the Chamber of Commerce at luncheon Monday noon, July 28, under auspices of the federal relations committee.

Following its annual custom, the Chamber of Commerce, through the federal relations committee, is again offering a loving cup to the company which wins in drill competition in the training camp. This year the prize offered by the Chamber of Commerce is to be supplemented by similar prizes offered by the Omaha Manufacturers' association and the Associated Retailers, and by medals to individual Nebraska citizens' military training camp students winning in the various competitions.

The young men of Omaha and Douglas county who will leave on a special train Thursday for Fort Des Moines are:
