THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

JULY 27 1924

NEW BOY SCOUT CAMP AT COUN-CIL BLUFFS—The camp is seven miles north of Council Bluffs, Materials were donated and members of the various Bluffs labor unions gave their services in constructing the building. The camp will remain open the year round.

FOR CRYING OUT LOUD! In China they used a peculiar straw contrivance to keep the babies from running away—but sometimes they don't like it. Evidently this one does not. P. & A. photo.

BETTY FOWLER OF DES MOINES AND WILLARD LAU OF LINCOLN vacationing at Clear Lake, Ia., prove that in surf boat riding as in anything else, "pride goeth before a fall." In the first picture you see them goin' good, but they are due for a spill as the second pic-ture plainly shows.

PARTICU-

HOW PARTICU-LAR! This polar bear in the London zoo wasn't satisfied with the water in which he rolled. He had to have it fresh and cool from its source, and so dug his nose into the rock's crevice from which it came. P. &

AT YOUR SERVICE-These bright looking youngsters are The Omaha Bee's carrier boys at Grand Island. Service is their middle name.

ONOMICAL TRANSPORTATIONimousines may came and sport models may o, but there is no joy like that of the billy that wagon of childhood. This youngster is avong some slight trouble with the harness. it it won't matter when he gets started

DOOMED! Quicker than a flash this cowboy was atop his prey and had him firmly lassoed P. & A phot-
