

EUROPEAN CUSTOMS FEATURE ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION. When St. Francis Parish in South Omaha celebrated the 25th anniversary of the founding of the parish the same customs that are employed in Poland were followed out to the letter. The celebration lasted all day. Photo by Bostwick.

SUMMER TIME IS THE HAPPY TIME FOR YOUNGSTERS. Left to right: Dorothy Brown, 5117 Burt street; Ann Updike, 5122 Webster street; Ned Steel, 5202 Burt street; Margaret Hertz, 5121 Burt street; Lorraine Updike, Jane Steel and Eugene Hertz, playing at the Hertz home. Photo by Dewell.

GOV. CHARLES W. BRYAN AT THE AGE OF 2. He is in the center with his illustrious brother, W. J. Bryan, on the left, and Robert Bryan (now dead) on the right.

MRS. CHARLES W. BRYAN, wife of the democratic nominee for vice president.

PURE WHITE ARABIAN. This pure white Arabian horse, carrying Mrs. H. K. Tompkins of Tampico, Mexico, is owned by Dr. John Copenhaver of Omaha. The horse is being trained at Clear Lake, Ia., by Smith Crane, former Omaha riding master.

WILL HIS NEXT STEP BE A HOME IN WASHINGTON? (a) The home occupied by Gov. Charles W. Bryan in Lincoln before he became governor. (b) The executive mansion now occupied by Gov. Charles W. Bryan.

FOUNDERS OF PARISH. With a few of their descendants these long-time citizens of South Omaha gathered for the 25th anniversary of their founding of St. Francis parish. Father Gluba is the priest of this parish. Photo by Bostwick.