Four Roads Join City of Omaha in Work of Construction.

Contract arrangement between the city of Omaha and four railroad companies, in connection with the construction of the Grace street sewer, shows that the companies will stand the following joint expenses:

Cash, $20,000; construction work by the companies, $35,000; sewer rightgrants, $30,000; damages waived, $10,000. These joint expenses have been apportioned to the roads in the following amounts: Union Pacific, $33,000; Illinois Central, $29,000; Missouri Pacific, $8,500; Chicago, St. Paul. Minneapolis & Omaha, $23,750.

The new Grace street sewer will be constructed under many railroad tracks and through railroad prop-The companies will be required to install temporary supports for the tracks and to raise the grade the tracks. The right-of-way grants given to the city carry a stipulation that the companies shall not build over the sewer.

The contract authorized Tuesday morning by the city ccuncil and in favor of the Jones Engineering company carries an amount of $341,000. of which the railroads will pay
