Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, July 31.—A revival of the black rust scare frorrom buying of northwest true doday. Prices bulged sharphy. with the May getting into new high ground for the crop. Profit taking and some hedging carried the market off at the last from best levels, but the close showed substantial gains.

Wheat, closed % to 2c higher; corn was 1%c higher to 5%c lower; oats was 3%c higher to 5%c lower; and rye ruled to 1%c higher and ribs were the best buyers of wheat during the session. July shaped at tight condition and passed out strong. Winnipes October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Myinipeg October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Myinipeg October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Winnipeg October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Winnipeg October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Winnipeg October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Winnipeg October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Winnipeg October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Winnipeg October moved to a premium over the local July, while the Winnipeg October moved to a premium of the day. Commission houses were on both sides most of the day. Cash corn met good demand at higher prices with the basis weak. Country offerings of corn remained light. Crop reports generally advised that the season was still backward.

New York, July 31.—The market for coffee futures was somewhat irregular today and after opening five points higher to eight points lower, cased off a few points further on late deliveries with December as low as 13.78c and March 13.44c, under local rasilzing. A rally followed in the afternoon that ran December up to 13.95c and March to 13.64c, with the close steady and 17 points higher to 8 lower. Part of the late buying was due to more favorable reparation news and the strength in other commodity markets. Sales were estimated at 31.000 bags. Closing quotations: September, 14.92c; October, 14.49c; November, 14.15c; December, 13.35c; March, 13.62c, May, 13.34c. Spot coffee, easy, Rio 7s, 16½@16%c; Santos 4s, 21½@22%c.
