Slayer of Bobby Franks Contemplates Writing Book if Sentenced to Be Hung-Will Try to Pierce Veil Between Dead and Living.

By JAMES WHITTAKER,

Chicago, Aug. 3.-Nathan Leopold, jr., for his wages of the sin of kill ing little Robert Franks, wants death. He wants it so sincerely that, it may be assumed, the triumph of Dr. William A. White, Washington psychiatrist, in evading the state's attack on his credibility, left him quite cold, if not a bit disappointed. For, if Dr. White and Defense Counsel Darrow win, Nathan Leopold will be cheated of his supreme experiment, will lose a dearly purchased opportunity to try the agility of his soul at the greatest of all possible tricks. He wants to make it do the double back flip-flop over the Styx.
