Wives Meet Every Day at Husbands' Tennis Club

A tennis club that specializes in championship material meets each afternoon at the courts in the spacious lawn of the Arthur Scribner home. At 4 the players, Messrs. Scribner, Ralph Powell, David Fenton Davis, T. F. Kennedy and Harry Koch arrive and soon afterwards Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Davis, with her little daughter, Nancy Patricia, John Mrs. Scribner and her two children under the trees near the courts, where they watch their husbands' games.

For Miss Hassler.

Miss Bess Hassler of Fort Wayne, Ind., is being honored with many affairs this week. She is the guest of Mrs. Joseph C. Lawrence. On Monday Mrs. E. M. Anderson entertained at luncheon at the Athletic club in her honor and Tuesday Mrs. J. M. Lowe was hostess at luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stone will compliment Miss Hassler with a dinner tonight and Mrs. V. W. Boyles will entertain for her on Wednesday. Mrs. H. J. Holmes is planning a party on Thursday for Miss Hassler, who leaves Saturday for her home, stopping at Chicago en route.

Miss Ritchie Home.

Miss Emma Ritchie returned Tuesday from Sioux City, where she was the guest of Miss Addison Peatler, following a visit at Miss Peatler's cottage at Lake Okoboji. Miss Peatler and Miss Ritchie were classmates at Mrs. Somers' school in Washington, D. C.

For Virginia Randall.

Miss Virginia Randall was honor guest at a luncheon bridge given by her mother, Mrs. A. J. Randall, Tuesday. Covers were laid for Misses Mildred Auchuty, Dorothy Conroy, Margaret Johnson, Esther Jones, Mary McMonies, Lucille Uehling and Irma Leussler.

Guest of the Ederly's.

Mrs. Fred Curtis will entertain at a luncheon at her home on Wednesday, in honor of Miss Flora Skelton of Lewiston, Me., the guest of Stuart Ederly and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ederly.

Miss Leussler Hostess.

Miss Irene Simpson, bride-to-be, will be complimented by a bridge on Thursday, August 23, by Miss Virginia Leussler.

To Visit Miss Rich.

Miss Vivian Varney of Broken Bow will arrive early in September to visit Miss Daisy Rich, a sister in Kappa Alpha Theta at the University of Nebraska.

For the Napier's Guest.

Mrs. S. W. Napier will give a luncheon Wednesday at the Brandeis for Mrs. O. S. Swanson of Kansas City, and Mrs. Karl Louis will entertain at luncheon Monday.

For Mrs. Slater's Guest.

Mrs. A. V. Shotwell will entertain at luncheon Wednesday for Mrs. Ed P. Slater's guest, Fred R. Jones, of Des Moines.

Business Woman May Have Big Get-Together

Business women of Omaha may unite for the biggest event in their history if plans under discussion are carried out. At the suggestion of members of the woman's division, Chamber of Commerce, a meeting of representatives from several women's organizations was held Monday afternoon at the chamber. Mrs. Dora Alexander Talley presided. Others in attendance were Fay M. Watts, Anna T. Olsson, Doris Gray, Jessie Northrup, Mabel Casey and Miss Carlson. These women, representing business women's organizations, will report a week from Thursday from their various clubs on the desirability of bringing a woman speaker of national note some time this winter to appear following a banquet. Several thousand business women would attend, in the opinion of Mrs. Talley.

Highland Club Party.

The members of the Highland Country club held a card and mah jong party Tuesday at the club house.

Your Problems

Martha Allen

Objects to Dancing.
Dear Martha Allen: The girl I have been going with for some time likes to dance. I do not dance at all and do not want her to. But she persists in going to dances even though she knows how I feel.
T. L.

Is She Honest?
My dear Martha Allen: I am 20 and very much in love with a wonderful man. He has asked me to marry him and I would love to say yes, but am afraid I might love him too much and that he would become bored in time.
ALICE.

At Carter Lake Club.
Mrs. Blaine Truesdel is in charge of a luncheon of 50 covers given by Fontenelle chapter, O. E. S., at Carter lake Tuesday.

Adele Garrison "My Husband's Love"

Lillian's Plans That She Told Madge. "The next thing," said Lillian, again on her fingers, "is to figure how you are going to get out of the city. You've never driven in traffic, have you?" I cast a furtive glance at her. Yes, she had put behind her all thought of the unwelcome task she had set me, that of taking home with me Mollie Fawcett, whose unusual haunting loveliness my husband so admired. With my acquiescence in her plan she patiently had dismissed everything from her mind save the mechanical details of the task. "No," I returned, with the malicious little thought that as far as I was concerned, I did not much care whether or not I had a traffic accident, if only it were a serious one. "But—if I start early enough there is very little traffic on the streets, and I ought to be able to get through—"

The Scarab!
"Nothing doing, my dear," Lillian said, decidedly. "I'll manage to have you driven over the Queensboro bridge, and through the worst of the traffic on the other side. Then you can saunter down to Sag at your leisure. But we'll visit no accident, one thing. Mollie is nearly your size, more nearly Katherine's. Between you, you will have to supply her with necessary clothing while she is there, for she cannot go back to her lodgings after any. You have an extra gown here, haven't you?"

General Federation New Department Chairman
Department chairmen for the next biennial period are announced by the Board of the General Federation of Women's clubs as follows: International Relations, Mrs. T. G. Winter, Minneapolis, Minn. American Citizenship, Mrs. William R. Alvord, Detroit, Mich. American Home, Mrs. Maggie Barry, College Station, Texas. Fine Arts, Mrs. S. M. Inman, 552 Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga. Education, not elected; Legislation, Mrs. Gilbert Davis 45 State St., Windsor, Vt.; Public Welfare, Mrs. Walter McNab Miller, St. Louis, Mo.; Press and Publicity, Mrs. Leslie Stringfellow Read, Fayetteville, Ark.

Get into Bed and Sleep!
Only a few hours ago he had walked down the street with the man, that I, seated in a limousine near the sidewalk, could be sure of recognizing them. It was the quintessence of absurdity that the scarab which I knew Mr. Underwood had meant me to send to him if some desperate need should befall, should be used for the securing of a garage check.
