Working Seven Days Each Week to Harvest Quantitities of Wheat-Peace and Prosperity There.

By W. M. MAUPIN.

dred and fifty miles through the fertile South Platte country, watching its wonderful landscape from the observation platform of Burlington No. 1. was to view a panorama of prosperity along every mile lying between state's metropolis and this splendid little city more than half way

A great teacher in olden days said it would be all right to remove the ox from the pit on the Sabbath day. That is why one could see the smoke of threshing outfits soaring away on the Sunday air. The wheat crop simply must be taken care of, Sunday or no Sunday. And what an enormous wheat crop it has been!

This South Platte country; crisscrossed by the branch lines of the Burlington, is "sittin' purty," to use the idlom of the street. While conditions during the last two or three years have been bad enough, they ever were quite so bad as some designing gentlemen would have the people believe. Right now the people who have made the South Platte country, coming up through gree tribulations, are smiling and tackling their work with renewed zest. A rea fter a couple of years of difficulties and they are responding to the ne impetus with all the vigor that car ried their pioneer fathers and mothers through such troubles as the written on a sheet of paper, dated present generation will never know.
