

Wheat Continues Up; Late Buying Stimulates Corn Russia Said to Be Inquiring for Grains; Profit Taking Dulls Edge of Oat Market.

By CHARLES LEVY, Universal Service Staff Correspondent. Chicago, Aug. 29.—Wheat continued its upward trend today in impressive fashion. Receipts were 183,000 bushels, 100,000 more than the previous day.

Apparently trade leaders are developing a growing faith in the strength of the wheat situation. The fact that Russia was said to be inquiring for wheat and rye in North America appeared significant to export about 500,000 bushels wheat next year.

Export when sales at the seaboard were 200,000 to 250,000 bushels; rye sales, 200,000 to 400,000 bushels. There were 1,000,000 bushels wheat sold out of Chicago in the last week of the month.

Provisions were up early, but sold off under week-end profit-taking. The market was dull and the price of the week-end profit-taking.

There was a report that the Argentine wheat situation was being handled by the Argentine government. The Argentine wheat situation was being handled by the Argentine government.
