WINSTON CHURCHILL'S "LOVE-DEATHS"

Surrender of Shanghai Expected

Defenders of City Admit This Is Possibility but Deny Soldiers Are in Retreat at Present.

Censorship Is Strict

Shanghai, Sept. 19.—Surrender of Shanghai to the Kiangsu army, seeking to capture it, was admitted this morning at headquarters of the defenders at Lungwha, to be a possibility.

It was asserted, however, that contrary to common reports, the defending Chekiang soldiers were not in retreat.

The Lungwha statement, which declared that the Chekiang fighters were inflicting heavy losses on their opponents and capturing many prisoners belonging to Honan and Anhwei regiments, was issued after renewed heavy artillery and machine gun fire had started about 2:30 a. m. all along the front from Liuho through Kiang and Hwangtu to Tsingpu.

While the order, keeping observers from approaching the fighting lines, made dependable information hard to get, it was evident that heavier artillery than that previously used had been brought up to the aid of the Kiangsu forces, together with strong reinforcements.

Seek to Halt Fight. The long hand of Wu Pei-fu and Pekin government was seen in the Lungwha assertion that Honanese and men from Anhwei were fighting alongside of the Kiangsu warriors.

Vote Hunt Is Not Farm Aid--Dawes

Nominee Asks for "Common Sense Consideration of Problem Free From Political Poison."

Such consideration, Mr. Dawes asserted could come only through appointment of an impartial nonpartisan commission such as contemplated by President Coolidge and put forward as the republican plan for bringing about agricultural relief.

The vice presidential nominee declared John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president, has chosen to discuss the agricultural problem in a political manner, and contended that the proper course was "that discussion which may result in a constructive, without side-stepping embarrassing facts in certain localities to gain votes."

General Dawes arrived here at 11:20 this morning and his first business was to get the republican factions together. Tonight it appeared he had succeeded, and that Governor W. H. McMaster, republican candidate for senator, would support the Coolidge-Dawes national ticket.

The indictment declares that a mortgage filed with them by the Prudential Insurance company had been canceled by the mortgagee before the date of filing.
