

Bank Robber Escapes With $1,500 in Cash

Cashier, Locked in Vault, Is Freed by Son; Bandit Pursued on Foot, Pursued by Posse.

Bostwick, Neb., Sept. 20.—A masked bandit met J. W. Kirkbride, cashier of the Bostwick State bank, as he entered the bank Saturday morning, forced him to open the vault, seized $1,500 in cash, locked the cashier in the vault, and made his escape.

The bandit had entered the bank through a rear window some time in the night, and was lying in wait when Kirkbride entered.

Pointing a gun at Kirkbride, he ordered him to lock the front door and put up his hands. He then forced the cashier to open the vault, and seized $300 in silver and $1,200 in bills which he found there.

Shoving Kirkbride into the vault, the bandit then slammed and locked the door, and made his escape through the rear window. No auto was seen in the neighborhood, and he is believed to have escaped on foot.

Kirkbride was found in the vault when his son, Donald, arrived at the bank a few minutes after the robbery.

Virtually every man in Bostwick carried a posse which set out in pursuit of the bandit. He is believed to have crossed the Republican river and to be headed for the hilly and timbered country near the Kansas state line.

A complete check of the loss has not yet been made, but it is expected to be well over $1,500.

Kirkbride described the bandit as a slight man, about five feet 8 inches tall.

FLEEING SCHUYLER BANDITS UNDER FIRE AT FREMONT.

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 20.—Two bandits who robbed a Schuyler harness shop Friday night fought their way through Fremont in a gun battle with police early Saturday morning.

The men emptied automatic pistols at Patrolman Sam Blair, who returned their fire and attempted pursuit. He was outdistanced in a race along the Lincoln highway towards Omaha.

Blair was stationed on the Lincoln highway just a short distance north of Fremont after Sheriff William Condit had been notified that the bandits were seen traveling towards Fremont in a Ford roadster, following the theft of 13 guns and pistols from a Schuyler store.

Notify Omaha Officers.

Blair recognized the bandits as they approached his car about 7 a. m. and shouted to them to stop. They sped past him, shooting as they passed.

Blair jumped into his car and returned the fire as he drove. Apparently none of his shots took effect.

As he pursued them he was joined by Sheriff Condit in another car. After a chase which skirted the north edge of the city the officers lost the trail and returned to Fremont to notify authorities to watch for the men.

A car containing two men answering the description of the bandits passed through Bennington at 10 a. m.

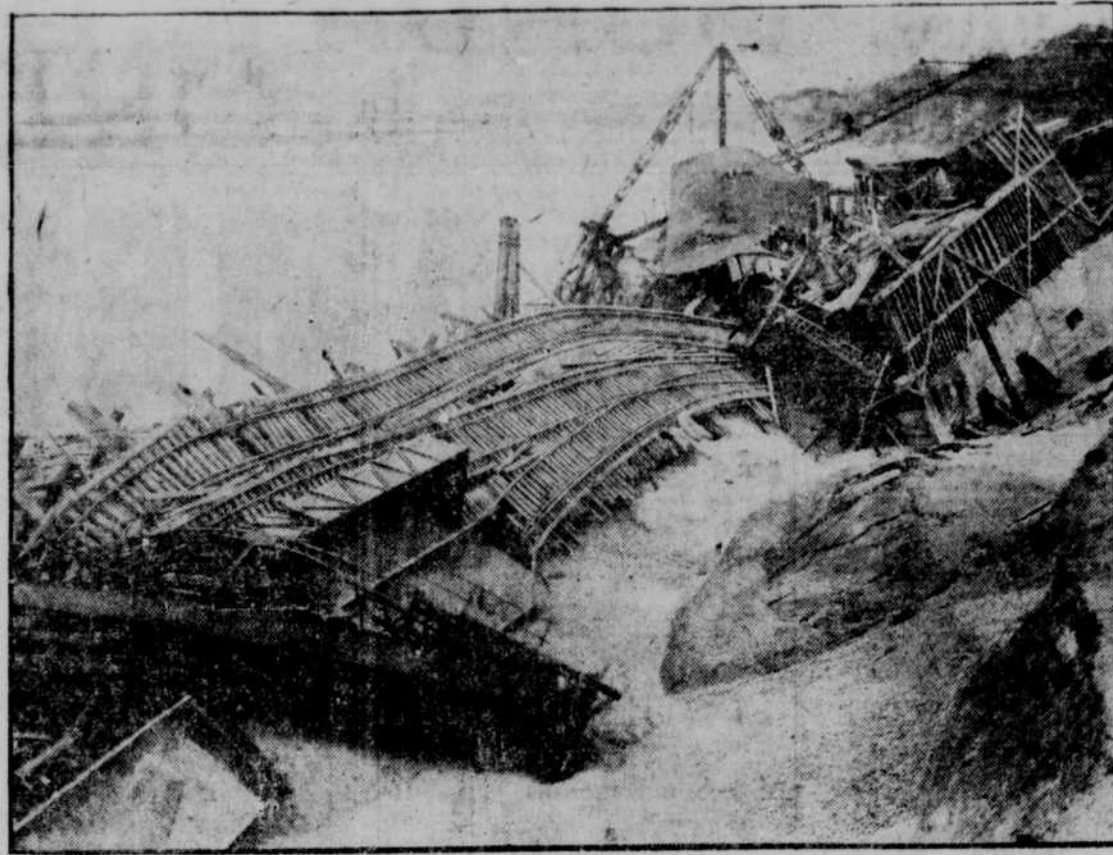

STENO SUES BOSS FOR HEART BALM

Chicago, Sept. 19.—A stenographer who until a year ago worked in his offices at the stock yards, today filed suit for $100,000 against John Frazier Smith, manager of one of the big packing plants. The suit is based upon an alleged breach of promise to marry, although Smith is married and has a family.

The woman filing suit is Miss Emma Dickhut of Denver, Col., an employe of the packing company's branch offices there, to which she was transferred a year ago.

Only the praecipe in the suit was filed by Attorney Charles E. Erbstein, who declined to discuss it. He filed the action on direction of Attorney Charles Small of Denver.

Sanitarium Sold by Dr. Waggener

Grand Island Doctor Buys Institution; Takes Possession October 1.

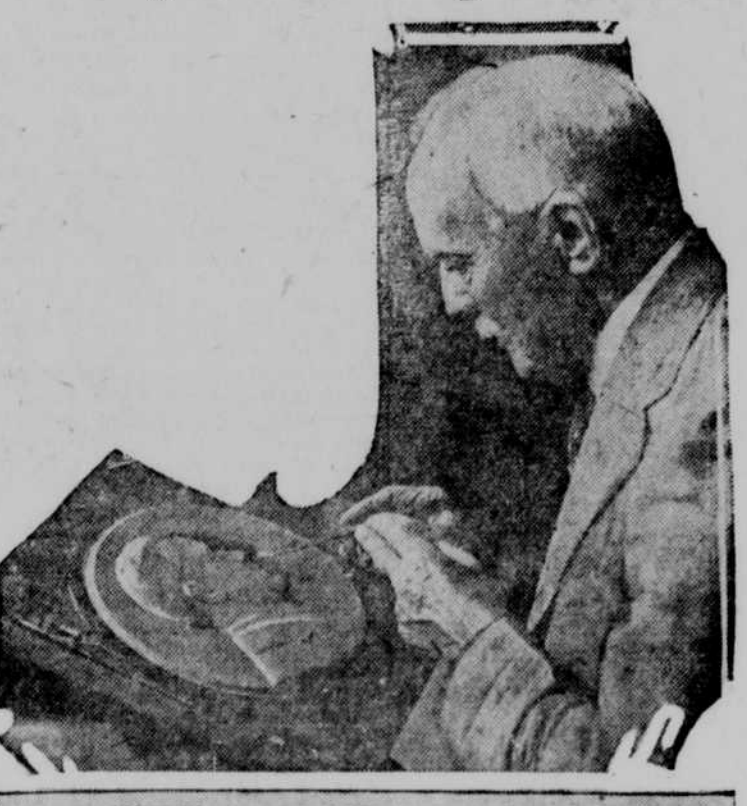

Dr. H. A. Waggener, founder of the Solar sanitarium, one of the largest institutions of its kind in the United States, announced Friday that he has sold the sanitarium to Dr. James P. Blanchard of Grand Island, Neb., who will take possession on October 1.

The purchase price was $45,000, Dr. Waggener said. The sanitarium occupies two floors of the Masonic Temple building, Nineteenth and Douglas streets, and was founded by Dr. Waggener in 1917. The sanitarium specializes in the system of treatment used at Battle Creek sanitarium, Battle Creek, Mich.

Dr. Waggener will resume his private medical and surgical practice after October 1, opening offices at 762 Brandeis Theater building.

Dr. Blanchard, purchaser of the sanitarium, has operated a similar institution at Grand Island, but sold it some weeks ago. He will give his entire time to the management of the sanitarium here.

Coolidge Medal Designer at Work

NEW COOLIDGE MEDAL, 1924.

The Calvin Coolidge inaugural medal, a three-inch bronze plaque, has been placed on sale at the Philadelphia mint. The reverse of the medal, which sells for $1, presents a profile portrait of the president. The reverse has three symbolic figures. The central one, a woman of heroic proportions, holds a tablet inscribed, "Constitution, Law, Order." The photo shows George T. Morgan, engraver at the mint, who has had all the presidents since Hayes sit for him. He draws from life at the White House. Morgan has been doing presidents and cabinet members for medal collectors all over the United States.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Proposed new schedules, reducing the freight rate on iron and steel articles from points in Colorado on the Colorado & Southern railway in connections to Texas common points territory, were ordered suspended by the interstate commerce commission today from September 20 until January 15.

Wood Finds Several Philippine Fraud Cases

Manila, Sept. 19.—Governor General Leonard Wood has discovered several cases of government officials having collected money from the Philippines fund under false pretenses. It was asserted today at his office. According to the executive, the victims included members of non-Christian tribes.

Governor General Wood said that the presidents of the municipalities of Malita and Davao exacted money from the Datus by giving them the impression they were paying land taxes, when in reality the money was turned in as contributions to the independent fund. Other disclosures were promised later.

More Trouble Raised by Filipino Strikers

Lihue, T. H., Sept. 19.—A detachment of the 17th militia stationed at Makawell to maintain order which it was feared would be disturbed following the recent clash between strikers and police near here, reported that their camp had been visited early this morning by howling and jeering striking Filipinos.

Sergt. Harry Richardson chased two of the strikers, and catching one of them, took a revolver from him.

On returning to camp the sergeant was attacked by two Filipinos who recovered the revolver with which they struck him in the face. It was requested of Governor Farrington to maintain the guard here another week.

Wisconsin, Me., Sept. 19.—Information which will be of great value to navigators, the world over was obtained by the MacMillan expedition into the far north, Capt. Donald B. MacMillan, explorer, said on his arrival tonight at Montebegon Island, 32 miles from this, his home port.

Lee Triplets Named for Three Candidates for President of U. S.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—One of triplets born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee of Aurora, Ill., near here, may bear the name of the next president.

They telegraphed President Coolidge, John W. Davis and Senator La Follette: "We have named one of our triplets for you. We are certain to have the name of the next president."

"But you can't be certain of that," the answer was wired in behalf of Senator La Follette by his son, Robert, Jr. "The election may be thrown into congress and a man named after a deacon in the house."

He suggested that "no matter what is done with the Coolidge and Davis baby, the La Follette youngster should be kept and raised."

Market Uneven on Fed Steers

Yearlings and Medium-Weight Offerings in Favor; Weightier Animals Lower.

While the supply of cattle coming to the Omaha market is chiefly from the range states, there has been a fairly good showing of fed steers and yearlings included each day of the week. Market on fed offerings has been mildly uneven, yearlings and medium weight offerings in favor and steady, with weightier offerings hard to move and around 25 cents lower. Top, paid for long yearlings, reached $11, with numerous load lots of choice yearlings and medium weight steers at a spread of $10.75 to $10.90, best 1,300-pound steers noted at $10.50, with limit on 1,500-pound steers $10.25, with the general run of fed steers and yearlings $8.75 to $10.25. A spread of $3 to $4 is taking bulk of grass cows, with heifers largely $3.75 to $5.50. Heavy calves are as much as $1 lower for the period. Bulls declined 25 cents in sympathy with other grades of killing cattle. Fleishy feeders reached $3.25, with several lots at $7.50 to $7.75, but the bulk sold downward from $7.25, with most sales at $6 to $7, and light stockers downward to $5.50 and below. Stock cows sold largely at $2.90 to $3.25, with heifers largely from $5 down.

Hogs: The review of the hog trade shows an uneven trend to values from Thursday to Thursday. Bulk of all sales on Thursday was at a spread of $5.40 to $9.40 top $9.50.

Sheep Receipts Increase.

Sheep: Increased receipts here and elsewhere, together with sharp declines in prices for dressed lambs at eastern cities, were chief adverse factors in the fat lamb trade. Thursday the bulk of fat lambs cleared at $12.75 to $13, top $13, natives at $12 to $12.60, while sales of fed clipped lambs, made early in the week, were at $11.60 to $12.10. Fat sheep ruled strong to 25 cents higher, best fat wethers included at $7.50, with desirable weight fat ewes mostly $5.50 to $6, week's top $6.25. Spread of $12 to $12.75 has taken the bulk of sales of good and choice feeding lambs, with sorted lambs upward to $12.85. Feeding and breeding sheep are closing 25 to 50 cents higher than a week ago. Feeding ewes quoted $4 to $5.50, breeding ewes, 2-year-old and over, $5.50 to $8.35.

Court Censures "Lawing" Women

Orders Neighbors to Refrain From Filing Charges Against One Another.

Mrs. Violet Cheever, 2116 U street, appeared in South Omaha police court Saturday morning to face charges of disturbing the peace; threatening to attack and beat Mrs. Effie Davison, 2118 U street; threatening to maim or seriously injure Mrs. Davison; threatening to kill Mrs. Davison, and threatening to burn Mrs. Davison's home.

She was released on all charges after Judge Sophus Noble had informed Mrs. Cheever and Mrs. Davison that he would put both of them in jail if either ever laid another charge against the other.

Mrs. Cheever and Mrs. Davison have been "lawing" ever since Mrs. Cheever borrowed a style magazine and returned it with a torn cover page, it is said.

Mrs. Cheever, Mrs. Davison, Mr. Cheever, Mr. Davison and three of the little Cheevers were all in court Saturday to see that both sides got justice.
