First Week of Two-Week Program to Be Reserved for Churchs; Speakers' Bureau Organized.

following the endorsement last week of the dates for Omaha Father Son week by the Ministerial union of Omaha, plans are being de for the observance here of the national week from November 9 to inclusive. Omaha has ranked t to Detroit as far, as interest and ttendance at father and son funcare concerned, and the Omaha nmittee is anxious this year to exd their former records for the dad-lad meetings ang get-togethers. A new plan will be worked this ar, according to J. H. Beveridge, chairman of the Omaha Father and Son committee, and a member of the mattenal father and son committee, of which Walter W. Head is chairman. The new plan reserves the entire first week of the two-week period for churches and Sunday schools. All clubs, lodges, schools and other organizations are asked by the committee to refrain from booking any father and son meetings the first week but to allow the churches of ROOMS FOR RENT. eek but to allow the churches of the city, who have sponsored the movement here to have full sway.
