Duchesses and Princesses of Court of Ak-Sar-Ben

Like Cinderella, They Will Flee at Last Strains From the Ball-Return to Various Schools for the Year.

So few of the princesses and duchesses of this year's court of Ak-Sar-Ben will be in town this winter, that social affairs given in their honor will be necessarily restricted to the night of the ball.

Miss Dorothy Wilcox will spend the winter here, but the other duchesses vill go away to school. Misses Dorothy Sherman and Elizabeth Trimble will return to the University of Nebraska, where they are already pursuing their studies, and Miss Betty Paxton will leave immediately following the ball for her fourth year at Mrs. Somers' school, Washington, D. C.

Miss Sherman, the daughter of Mrs. Charles R. Sherman, has just pledged Kappa Kappa Gamma. She will remain in the university one year, returning next fall to Smith college, which she entered last year. Miss Sherman, besides being of striking beauty, is a brilliant student. In her freshman year she was admitted to the Honor society of Smith college for her high scholastic standing. Her cousin, Gretchen McConnell White of Hollywood, was a princess several years ago.

Miss Elizabeth Trimble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Trimble also a sophomore member of Kappa Kappa Gamma at the university. the is a Central High school graduate. Her uncle, Robert Trimble, is a member of the board of governors of Ak-Sar-Ben, and her cousin, Roberta Trimble, was among last year's maids. Miss Trimble will come to Omaha ne Wednesday preceding the ball.

Miss Betty Paxton is the daughter of the James Love Paxtons, and a ece of Mrs. Henry T. Clarke, who, as Grace Allen, was the fourth queen

Miss Paxton will be graduated in June from Mrs. Somers' school in Vashington, D. C. She formerly attended Central High school. She will have Miss Patricia Healy of Ogden, Utah, as her guest during the festivities.

Miss Dorothy Wilcox, daughter of B. A. Wilcox, is a graduate of Brownell Hall. She attended Monticello seminary and later was a student in The Leland Powers school of Expression in Boston. Miss Wilcox is talented artistically and is noted for her gift for costume design

Among the princesses who are spending the winter at home are Miss Josephine Platner, Miss Onnolee Mann and Miss Gertrude Kinsler The other royal maids will return to school. Miss Lenore Pratt who left Sunday for Mount Holyoke college in Massachusetts, will journey back
