New York's Pennant Chances Strengthened as Giants Defeat Pirates, 5 to 4

Buccaneers Are Unable to Solve Nehf's Offerings

Smoky City Crew Stages Belated Ninth Inning Rally; McGraw Hurler's Homer Puts Team in Lead.

ing chance of Pittsburgh in the National league race. with colors flying in the ninth inning when with two out they rallied and pulled up to within a run of the champions on Carey's homerun drive which scored Schmidt and Moore ahead of him. But Art Nehf, veteran Giant southpaw, who had outpitched St. Paul Indianapolis his portside rival, Wilbur Cooper and put his team in the lead with a homer in the fifth, checked the befielder, for the second time. By making a clean sweep of the series the Giants increased their margin over the Pirates to four and a half games. Since the champions have only three more to play, they cannot be overhauled by Pittsburgh, even if the latter won all its remaining five games.

modern baseball history. The Robins were idle today so the champions strengthened their margin over Robinson's crew to one and a half games. By winning two out of the remaining three with Philadelphia, McGraw can clinch the flag even if Brooklyn wins its remaining two with Boston. Pittsburgh today made only six hits off the diminutive southpaw Nehf, until the ninth and they were scattered in as many innings. Their only run in that span came in the fourth when the Giants' makeshift inner defense cracked momentarily and Trayner, singling with two out, scored on successive errors by Lindstrom and Kelly.

nesday evening formed a major portion of the Cornhuskers' drill Thursday. The first hour was consumed with defensive work. Halfbacks were sent into a line which was not backed up by a secondary defense. Following this the squad was divided into teams and regular scrimmage was the order of the day.

The A team was about the same with Rhodes and Robertson on the ends; Captain Weir and Molzen at the tackles, and Hutchison at center; Bloodgood was calling the signals with Avard Mandery at halfback and Roland Locke on the other half. Doug Meyers was at fullback.

It was the ability of Doug Meyers to plunge through holes Wednesday evening that called for the extra period on defensive tactics. Doug was rlopping through for substantial gains but he was defined the pricking lower Wins Spanish Derby.
