

Council Bluffs Society

Kennedy-Held. In St. Francis Xavier church Tuesday morning occurred the marriage of Miss Helen Held and William Kennedy.

Betrothal. Announcement was made last week of the engagement of Miss Pauline Prime of Seward, Neb., and Rupert Irving Hall of this city.

Bride-Elect Is Ill. Miss Josephine Allavie, who has set October 16 as the date of her marriage to Harry Pfeiffer, is ill at Mercy hospital, having undergone an operation last Monday for appendicitis.

For a Recent Bride. Honoring Mrs. Henry Quinn, a September bride, Mrs. H. A. Quinn and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, entertained at their home last Monday.

On Motor Trip. Mrs. Charles Test Stewart and Mrs. J. J. Hess left Saturday on an overland trip to Hoopstown, Ill., where they will visit Mrs. Stewart's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McFerron.

For Miss Meyers. Among the delightful affairs planned for Miss Virginia Meyers, who is here from San Francisco for a visit with her mother, Mrs. F. Meyers, on Park avenue, was a picnic supper given Thursday evening by Miss Margaret Flickinger and Miss Ruth Felt.

Guests at Omaha Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Berne Hopkins were among the guests at a dinner given at the Omaha Country club Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Creighton.

McAtee Depart. Dr. and Mrs. John McAtee and children, Jack, Jean and Richard, who visited at the S. T. McAtee home for a couple of weeks in route from Alpena, Mich., took their departure Thursday for Los Angeles to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Reynolds had a luncheon of 10 covers at the Brandeis restaurant last Wednesday for Mrs. McAtee and on Tuesday to attend a meeting of the board of control and talk over plans for the spring conference.

Miss Adah Dullay and 18 of the teachers from the Benjamin Franklin school enjoyed a picnic supper last Tuesday at the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cooper near Mynster Springs.

For Out-of-Town Guests. Three former Council Bluffs residents who have come in for a great deal of entertaining since they arrived last week for a short stay are Mrs. Emma VoeWinkle of Seattle, her sister, Miss Mary Phillips, and another sister, Mrs. Lewis Shepard of Los Angeles.

Mrs. VoeWinkle was on the European trip last summer with Miss Anna Ross, who arranged a luncheon in her honor for Thursday, 10 guests accepting her hospitality.

Mrs. Oscar Keeline was a luncheon hostess of Friday, entertaining for these visitors at the Grand hotel when covers were placed for 12. On Monday Mrs. Ernest Eldred Hart will assemble for luncheon at her home a group of guests who were friends of these sisters when they lived here and on Tuesday Mrs. E. M. Sargent will have a luncheon for them.

Celebration for Seventh Birthday Wednesday

In celebration of her 7th birthday little Jere Van Rensselaer was given a lovely party by her brother last Wednesday, the young guests being invited from 4 until 7. A series of games and frolics on the lawn provided diversion until dinner was served from two tables, each of which was adorned with a birthday cake.

Mrs. George Damon is planning to entertain next Friday for Mrs. VoeWinkle, Mrs. Shepard and Miss Phillips, who are spending the week-end in Omaha with their cousin, Miss Caroline Dodge.

The bridge party planned for last Thursday by Misses Theresa and Claire Kinzel in compliment to Mrs. Harold Schaper of Milwaukee, was postponed until a later date owing to the fact that the honor guest departed during the week for Chicago to spend a few days with her husband who is obliged to go to New York for a stay of several weeks.

During his absence Mrs. Schaper expects to return to Council Bluffs to be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark.

Miss Adah Dullay and 18 of the teachers from the Benjamin Franklin school enjoyed a picnic supper last Tuesday at the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cooper near Mynster Springs.

The following Council Bluffs young people have recently been pledged to sororities and fraternities. Katherine

'The Stepper' A smart, graceful mod'l that puts the tink'l in youthful toes~ its so peppy it fairly leaps at a tunef'l melody. Offered in a severely simp'l mod'l in Patent Leather for full Dress and Mat Calf for Tuxedo~at the modest price of eight-fifty~ the price of all Nabis.

NAPIERS MEN'S SHOP 307 South 16th Street—The Entire Street Floor

Benson Society

Benson W.O.A.W. Program. A radio program arranged by Mrs. F. E. Young, representing Benson musical and literary talent, will be broadcast over W.O.A.W. Friday evening, October 3, beginning at 9 p. m.

Bluffs with his mother, Mrs. J. F. Wilcox. Mrs. Joseph M. Foreman and son, Robert, and Miss Gertrude Harlan are spending the day with relatives in Des Moines.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Macrae III, and daughter, Joyce Virginia of Des Moines spent the past week in Council Bluffs with Dr. Donald Macrae, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George Damon had as their guest for several days last week Mrs. E. D. Mitchell, who was en route from points in Virginia to her home in Tulsa, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Mulqueen have as house guests, Mrs. Mulqueen's sister, Mrs. Robert Driscoll and her 2-year-old daughter, Kathleen, of Lead, S. D.

Miss Mary Aid who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Aid, for several weeks, took her departure Wednesday evening for Seattle where she makes her home.

Mrs. Donald Macrae Jr., and her young grandson who have been in Rockland, Me., for the past two months expect to remain on until the latter part of October when they will be joined by Dr. Macrae with whom they will return home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hughes who came to attend the reception given on Tuesday last in honor of Maj. Gen. M. A. Tinley have returned to their home in Des Moines having spent a few days with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilcox.

Miss Helen Crisman, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Carl Crisman will sing the duet "O Dry Those Tears." Piano numbers will be contributed by Miss Hazel Leaverton and Miss Jennie Gillespie, who will play "Juba Dance," by Dett.

Mrs. John Britton will give a group of readings entitled "A Haze Ball" and "First Visit to the Butcher Shop." H. G. Wilcox will read "Let We Forget Flanders Field" and "I'm Shut So Glad."

Mrs. Mable Hinzie will play two violin numbers, "The Spanish Dance," by Reh Field, and "The End of a Perfect Day," by Carrie Jacobs Bond.

The regular meeting of the Benson School association will be held Monday evening, September 22, in library hall, Gorton Roth, president of the association, in the chair.

Members of the Benson Methodist church will entertain at a reception in the church parlors Monday evening, September 29, in honor of their pastor, Arthur H. Adams, and Mrs. Adams, who will continue their work in this community for the coming year.

Mrs. Charlotte Melchors Jenkins entertained at her home Monday evening, September 22, in honor of Miss Olga Sorenson, who leaves September 29, for New York, where she will resume her musical studies.

Mrs. Edward P. Schoentgen has returned home having accompanied her daughter, Jane, to Sweet Blar and her son, John, to Williams college at Williamstown, Mass.

Members of the Benson Methodist church will entertain at a reception in the church parlors Monday evening, September 29, in honor of their pastor, Arthur H. Adams, and Mrs. Adams, who will continue their work in this community for the coming year.

Mrs. Charlotte Melchors Jenkins entertained at her home Monday evening, September 22, in honor of Miss Olga Sorenson, who leaves September 29, for New York, where she will resume her musical studies.

Mrs. Edward P. Schoentgen has returned home having accompanied her daughter, Jane, to Sweet Blar and her son, John, to Williams college at Williamstown, Mass.

Members of the Benson Methodist church will entertain at a reception in the church parlors Monday evening, September 29, in honor of their pastor, Arthur H. Adams, and Mrs. Adams, who will continue their work in this community for the coming year.

Mrs. Charlotte Melchors Jenkins entertained at her home Monday evening, September 22, in honor of Miss Olga Sorenson, who leaves September 29, for New York, where she will resume her musical studies.

Mrs. Edward P. Schoentgen has returned home having accompanied her daughter, Jane, to Sweet Blar and her son, John, to Williams college at Williamstown, Mass.

Members of the Benson Methodist church will entertain at a reception in the church parlors Monday evening, September 29, in honor of their pastor, Arthur H. Adams, and Mrs. Adams, who will continue their work in this community for the coming year.

Mrs. Charlotte Melchors Jenkins entertained at her home Monday evening, September 22, in honor of Miss Olga Sorenson, who leaves September 29, for New York, where she will resume her musical studies.

Mrs. Edward P. Schoentgen has returned home having accompanied her daughter, Jane, to Sweet Blar and her son, John, to Williams college at Williamstown, Mass.

Members of the Benson Methodist church will entertain at a reception in the church parlors Monday evening, September 29, in honor of their pastor, Arthur H. Adams, and Mrs. Adams, who will continue their work in this community for the coming year.

Mrs. Charlotte Melchors Jenkins entertained at her home Monday evening, September 22, in honor of Miss Olga Sorenson, who leaves September 29, for New York, where she will resume her musical studies.

Mrs. Edward P. Schoentgen has returned home having accompanied her daughter, Jane, to Sweet Blar and her son, John, to Williams college at Williamstown, Mass.

honor. Covers were spread for 12 guests. Home from Eastern Trip. Mrs. H. W. Gross is home from an extended eastern trip, where she visited her sister, Mrs. M. Gillespie of New Milford, Pa., formerly Miss Jessie Moulthrop of Benson, and two brothers in Monroeton, Pa., and a brother in Birmingham, N. Y.

West Farnam Kensington. Mrs. Harry Bentley, 4623 Cuming street, was hostess Wednesday at a 1 o'clock luncheon in honor of the members of the West Farnam Kensington. Covers were placed for Mesdames John Morris, William Probsting, R. H. Chamber, Fred Kettlehut, G. C. Wilhelm, Roy M. Eaton and F. E. Young.

Luncheon Guests. Mrs. Eric Shue and Mrs. F. L. Sherer were Friday luncheon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woodyard.

Dinner for Out-of-Town Guests. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Young entertained at dinner Monday in honor of Mr. W. E. Somes and Mr. C. C. Williams of California.

Dinner Guest. Charles Sullivan was a Tuesday dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Someland. During the day Mr. Kermit Someland and his mother and Mr. Sullivan motored to Valley and back.

Ak-Sar-Ben Guests. Miss Ruby Petersen, Miss Leona Cunningham and Mr. Newell Cunningham of Norfolk, Neb., are Ak-Sar-Ben guests at the home of their aunt, Mrs. W. H. Reed, and Dr. Reed.

Studenroth-Anderson. Miss Helen Studenroth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Studenroth, and George W. Anderson were married Wednesday evening, September 24, at the Immanuel Lutheran church, Rev. F. W. Seesko officiating. The bride was gowned in white georgette and silk lace and wore a tulle veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms.

To Visit Eastern Cities. Mrs. J. M. Alderman of Newport, Neb., and Mrs. E. A. Mason of Benson will leave October 5 to accompany Dr. Mason's mother, Mrs. Eugenia Mason, and sister, Miss De Etile Mason, to Asheville, N. C., where the latter two will spend the winter. From Asheville Mesdames Alderman and Mason will visit Washington, D. C., and Pittsburgh, Pa., where Mrs. Mason's son, Carroll, is a student in the Carnegie Technical school, and where Dr. J. W. Mason, brother of Dr. E. A. Mason, resides. En route home they will visit in Monroe, Mich., and Chicago.

Returns to Eastern School. Miss Olga Sorenson will leave Monday, September 29, for New York, where she will begin her second year at the School of Musical Art. Miss Sorenson will be accompanied by Miss Enid Lindberg, pupil of Jean P. Duffield, who will take up the study of piano under Mr. Friskin of the institute. Miss Sorenson expects to get her diploma in June, 1925.

Entertains Orchestra. Members of the orchestra of the First Christian church were entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Arthur Melcher. After an interesting rehearsal a wicker roast on the lawn was enjoyed.

Personals. E. M. Cook spent Wednesday in Lincoln. Mrs. Carl Holdrede entertained at her home Thursday in honor of Mrs. James Main.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kelley have taken the Rickenbrode home for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. O. McGuire have begun the erection of their new home in Benson Acres.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Funk are now located in the Ida apartment, Twentieth and Cuming streets.

Miss Caille Cunningham of Lincoln is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woodyard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rickenbrode will leave Wednesday for Okawasa, Okla., where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. C. B. Phenix and two sons will visit Mrs. Phenix's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Squiers, in Hastings, during the coming week.

Kermit Someland, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Someland, left Saturday for Oakland, Cal., where he will spend the winter with his sister, Mrs. C. P. Mitchell, and Mr. Mitchell.

Y. W. C. A. Sunday: Central building open 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. No meals served.

Monday: Federation of clubs, Autumn banquet and program at 6 in Y. W. C. A. auditorium. Miss Lena C. Saeftrom, chairman of Social committee, is in charge of the program for the evening.

Tuesday: 10:15, Central Freshman club meet in third floor club rooms Y. W. C. A. 1:30, Bellevue Girls' reserves meet at Bellevue High school. 7:45 p. m., Co-operative Bible class, Burgess-Nash auditorium.

Wednesday: Technical Student club meeting third floor club rooms of the Y. W. C. A. 7:15, Benson Student club cabinet meeting. Girls' Community club will meet for dinner at 6 followed by program.

Thursday: 1:15, Central Student cabinet meeting. 7:00, sewing class, free of charge to all women and girls.

Saturday: The Inter-Club council will meet at the Y. W. C. A. for luncheon at 12:15. The Council of the Federation of Clubs will meet for supper at 6, followed by business meeting at 7.

Greetings to King Ak-Sar-Ben And His Royal Consort May your reign be a prosperous and happy one and it will be if you use our Semi-Flat Service 6c the Pound Flat work ironed, balance damp. If that does not appeal to your Royal Highness, we have every other known kind of laundry service. The Old Reliable Leavenworth Laundry Co. HARNEY 0102

Presenting for Your Approval in a Fashion Revue Extraordinary The Authentic Modes for the Fall and Winter Seasons in Coats - Wraps - Suits Dresses - Furs - Millinery Footwear and Accessories Rialto Theater Every Performance This Week. Garments Modeled by Ivan B. Martin's Famous Fifth Avenue Beauties For Monday Only In Our French Room—Sixth Floor A Special Exhibit of Imported Gowns Creations that are bewitching in their style beauty and individuality. All have been attractively priced for this occasion. Special Orders Accepted on These Gowns. HERZBERGS "Style Without Extravagance"