

Giant inspection automobile of the Western Union, that travels on tracks and makes inspections of the wire service between Maine and California.
—Wide World.

The champion life-saving dog of France, leaps into the the Seine from one of the bridges during a test of his prowess.
—Wide World.

A fireless locomotive that is charged with water and live steam at the boiler plant of the National Cash Register Company, will run for two to three hours without recharging which takes twenty minutes. The test has proven a success and is economical, since it eliminates the necessity of a tender or a fireman. The heavy black smoke which marred the building walls is also done away with.
—Wide World.

A new and heretofore unpublished portrait of Princess Beatrice, aunt of the King of England and mother of Queen Victoria
Wide World

Ramsay Macdonald, the British Prime Minister who was excluded from the Lossiemouth Course, because of pacifist sentiments several years ago, plays a round with his son at Spey Bay, where he was more welcome.
—Wide World.

LEFT—Jo Davidson, the well known sculptor and his bust of John D. Rockefeller, which he executed on a recent visit in the United States and which he is exhibiting at his studio in Paris.
Wide World

The giant dirigible, ZR-3, built for the United States at the Zeppelin factory at Friedrichshafen, Germany.
—Wide World.

The only known photograph in existence of President Coolidge graduating from the Black River Academy at Ludlow, Vt. The President is standing second from left.
—Wide World.