

Sen. Howell and McMullen Tour Fourth District

Address Large Mass Meeting at York; Candidate for Governor Has Busy Day.

By P. C. POWELL. Staff Correspondent Omaha Bee. York, Neb., Sept. 29.—Adm. McMullen, republican candidate for governor, carried his campaign into the fourth congressional district today.

Mr. McMullen, with Senator R. H. Howell, ended the day by addressing a large mass meeting at York tonight.

The meeting was presided over by Charles A. McCloud, republican national committee man, who met the McMullen party at Waco.

During the day Mr. McMullen spoke at Garland, Seward, Tamora, Utica and Waco. At Garland one of the men to press forward to grasp Mr. McMullen's hand was Jacob Kook, past 79.

Mr. McMullen, in his address today, told of the $2,000,000 raised at the legislative session of 1923, interest from which to aid widows of ex-service men and their families.

ERROR LEADS TO FILING OF SUIT

A bookkeeper's mistake in writing "842,395.80" instead of "84,395.75" in the place designated for "inventories at the end of year" on the 1919 income tax return of the Farmers' Union Co-operative association of Bennett, Neb., resulted Monday in the filing of a suit against A. B. Allen, United States collector of revenues.

The association asks the return of $1,007.75, which it is alleged is the excess tax the error caused them to pay. The petition states that $36,190.75 is the correct inventory value at that time.
