"Butter-Nut - yes - the 3 lb. can"

Outstanding among coffees is the famous Butter-Nut blend. There is a distinctiveness of taste, a richness and mellowness exclusively its own. There's none to compare with it.

Small wonder then that grocers tell us their customers order Butter-Nut by name—in fact, insist upon it.

Women know they can afford to be particular in the coffee they buy. There is little difference in prices, but a wide variation in quality. Butter-Nut combines quality with reasonable economy. Order a can and judge for yourself.

The breakfast call is well come when the aroma of good Butter-Nut Coffee floats through the house.
