

For the college girl to wear on more festive occasions, a youthful frock of crepe Chenette and lace.

Tito Schipa with his pretty wife. Tito Schipa, the lyric tenor of the Chicago Opera company, gives the first concert of the Tuesday Musical club's season at the Brandeis theater the night of October 22.

A messenger of mercy, the Visiting Nurse making her call. Photo by Dewell.

Three little friends.

A sheath like evening gown of beaded crepe Chenette. The underslip is of gold flame cloth.