In the fourth period, Richerson got off a poor punt which was good for but 10 yards and i twas Nebraska's ball on Missouri's 15-yard line, A. Mandery bucked the line for two yards and John Rhodes made one of those famous getaways on an off tackle plunge, running 13 yards to a touchdown.

Missouri threatened once in the fourth quarter, but the Huskers' forwards held and a pass was incomplete on the fourth down. That was just before the Huskers' second counter. Bloodgood's punt was good for 61 yards and it took the Huskers deep into the Missouri ter-

Captain Bonds was the most consistent ground gainer for the Tigers. The outstanding players in the Husker lineup were Collins and Rob ertson, the two ends; Bloodgood and Rhodes. Roland Locke surprised the MAY FORM TANK ertson, the two ends; Bloodgood and followers by his good defensive work. Always a threat on the offense, his presence strengthened the defense to a marked degree.
