Former Omahan Comes in Concert

Oriana Abbott Jennison, Blanche Dorothy Jennison

Mrs. Oriana Abbott Jennison and her daughter, Miss Blanche Jennison, will appear in joint recital Tuesday evening, November 11, at the First Methodist church under auspices of the Ladies' Aid society. Mrs. Ira Porter is chairman for the event. Unusual interest attaches to this announcement, for Mrs. Jennison was formerly an Omahan girl. Her musical career has been followed with much interest here. She is a sister of Mrs.

Wilbur Brandt, whose guest she and her daughter were last summer when they were widely entertained as visitors.

Mrs. Jennison and Miss Blanche are both sopranos. Their duets are said to be a unique departure from the convention. They sing both opera and ballad numbers. Miss Jennison is an accomplished reader as well as singer. She will give a reading in costume from "East is West."
