POLITICAL ADVERTMENT

For County Commissioner Is a Vote for Lower Taxes

The following list of home owning taxpayers, taken at random from all parts of Omaha, representing 30,000 or more like ourselves, have examined the 1924 assessment records in the County Assessor's Office, and find that our assessments and those of all the homes in our entire vicinity has been reduced from 20 to 40 per cent and we wish to show our appreciation for this great relief by endorsing Mr. Harry G. Counsman for County Commissioner.

Another Lad Loses Arm; Both Accidents in Richardson County.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Falls City, Neb., Nov. 3 .- One boy. was killed and another lad, 12, st.

17. was killed and another tad, 12, lost an arm in hunting accidents in Richardson sounty Sunday.

Teddy Majerus, 17; son of Theodore Majerus of Rulo, shot himself accidentally while duck hunting on a sandbar in the Missouri river between Rulo and the state of Missouri.

St. District. Store, 1928 Deactoword.

18t District. Store tween Rulo and the state of Missouri.

According to Bentley and Oldfield, Majerus landed first after they had rowed to the sandbar from the Nebraska side of the river. While waiting for his companions he leaned on a pair of guns, resting the muzzles below his left armpit. It is believed that the hammer of one gun caught, the trigger of the other, discharging the weapon. The charge entered the youth's side just below the heart.

the weapon. The charge entered the youth's side just below the heart.

His companions lifted Majerus back into the boat, but the lad died before they could row to shore.

Orgen Richmond, 12, son of Mrs Lee Price of this city, shot his right arm off while hunting below the waterworks. The shot left his arm hanging by a small plece of flesh, and the limb was amputated at a local hospital. The boy was unable to explain the accident.
