Several years ago, in Dresden, Germany, Mrs. Kintz, then a girl of but 16, contributed to some of the leading magazines a series of short stories, one of which was entitled "The Return From Boarding School." Altrusa President.

Miss Alma Lois Benton

Miss Alma Lois Benton, president of Altrusa club at Fremont, is manager of the Hammond & Stephens company of Fremont as well as its secretary and treasurer.

Miss Benton has grown up in the business, having joined the company soon after she left the high school. She is one of the very few business women in the country who has full charge in every particular of a large and prosperous publishing and manufacturing concern doing a wholesale business over a dozen states. She has made a place for herself through her ability, honesty and industry.

The Hammond & Stephens company are jobbing publishers and manufacturers for supplies for county superintendents of schools and they sell only to the counties and cities. The business extends throughout a dozen states. This concern furnishes in addition to its county business, lithographed diplomas for thousands of cities for use of graduates from the public schools.

Miss Benton inherited her position when the president, Dan V. Stephens, was elected to congress.

who are unable to reach the polling places on election day. The local D. A. R., taking part in the movement to get out the vote in recent election, furnished six cars in which to convey voters. They were kept busy up until closing time at the polls and the experience brought out many interesting phases in connection with voting privilege.

The women learned that inmates of the sick room or the hospital may not cast their ballots, even when brought to the door of the polling places. The local D. A. R. is investigating the matter. The committee caring for the problem includes Mrs. Laird, whose husband, father and brothers are lawyers; Mrs. Conrad Hollenbeck, wife of the late Supreme Judge Hollenbeck, and Mrs. George Staats, wife of the representative from this district.

Another interesting movement begun by the local D. A. R. chapter is the planting of rows of memorial trees in Fremont, dedicated to revolutionary war ancestors or soldiers who have died in later wars. Various sites have been suggested for the memorial trees but no final decision has been reached.

The Operation I Avoided -

MRS. IDA M. COFFMAN SIDELL, ILL. IF there is one thing more than another a woman dreads, it is a surgical operation, and to be told that one is necessary is very disheartening. Hospitals are grand institutions, and undoubtedly many operations are necessary. However, we have received hundreds of letters from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation had been deemed advisable. Every woman who suffers as Mrs. Coffman did naturally wishes to avoid an operation if possible, and the remarkable statements which she makes in her letter will be read with interest by women everywhere.

Mrs. Coffman's Letter Follows: SIDELL, ILLINOIS—"I was a nervous wreck. I was suffering from a pain in my left side which was noticeable at all times but sometimes it was almost unbearable and I could not even let the bed-clothing rest on my body at night. I had been sick for seven years but not so badly until the last 18 months, and had become so run-down that I cared for nobody and would rather have died than live. I couldn't do my work without help and the doctor told me that an operation was all there was left for me. I would not consent to that so my husband brought me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begged me to take it. I have taken fourteen bottles of it and I feel ten years younger. Life is full of hope. I do all my housework and had a large garden this year. I never will be without the Vegetable Compound in the house and when my two little girls reach womanhood I shall advise them to take it." MRS. IDA M. COFFMAN, R. R. No. 2, Sidell, Illinois.

Another Operation Avoided DAYTON, OHIO—"I was sick for eight weeks and had three doctors. They told me I would have to be operated upon before I would be any better. My sister told me about the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In one week's time I began to feel better. I took seven bottles of it and also some of the Liver Pills and used your Sanative Wash and I soon gained my health. I recommend your medicines to all women who feel badly and have troubles of this kind and I will answer all letters sent to me by women." MRS. GRACE R. GILLEM, 270 Valley Street, Dayton, Ohio.

Before Submitting to an operation Women should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. LYNN, MASS.
