

let's Go Shopping With Polly

So often I have gone through these rooms, Lighting the seen and unseen candles That make a house You, who have visited me, Have seen the cheer Of many colored candles,

But I, who have watched here frequently alone. Have lighted many more That you may never know; Tall red candles of my pride, White candles that were prayers, Strange little blue ones for loneliness, Some of strong yellow When I needed courage,

A rose-colored candle That men call joy, Whose soft flame Has companioned me for countless hours While I worked; That has haloed each chubby baby's face, And cast a flattering finish On all the treasured handicraft I made. It has meant so much to me, I should like to leave This light Burning in the little house When I go away. -HOME LIGHTS, by Eleanor Robins Wilson
