

LIFTING THE HAND OF TIME—The greatest clock in the world is being constructed just across the Hudson river from New York City. Workmen are shown here lifting one of the great hands in place. P. & A. photo.

BEAUTIFYING NEBRASKA TOWNS. Here's how Grand avenue in Ravenna was parked to add to the attractiveness of this Nebraska town. How about your town? Has it a beauty spot? Send a photograph of it to the Alcovra editor of The Omaha Bee and it will be printed in this section.

No, this photo was not made when grandpa used to get his whiskers tangled in the front wheel while scorching along Farnam street at five miles an hour. In fact, the race took place in England just a few days ago. P. & A. photo.

SPEAKING TO HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, THE KING OF ITALY—The big guns of the Italian battleship Duilio spoke a royal salute to the king just as this photo was snapped. P. & A. photo.

EVEN A KING LIKES TO TAKE A DAY OFF. Here is King Albert of Belgium visiting in London incognito. He is shown taking a stroll in Hyde park. P. & A. photo.

ROUNDUP QUEEN ROUNDS UP HEARTS—Miss Josie Sedgewick won the crown of queen of the Pendleton (Ore.) roundup and at the same time the hearts of her young admirers. P. & A. photo.

A CARRIAGEFUL OF MISCHIEF—And bubbling youth too. Conditions in this baby carriage are crowded, but everybody seems happy.

WASHINGTON AT VALLEY FORGE AGAIN. The scene of this historic winter camp was again populated by soldiers of '76 as part of Philadelphia's celebration of the 150th anniversary of the meeting of the first continental congress. P. & A. photo.