Baltimore Paper Must Stand Trial in Tax Law Case

Fight Over Publication of Income Figures Looms in Senate; Norris Will Defend Measure.

Washington, Nov. 20.—The publicity clause of the income tax law Davis were killed and another con-Coincident with the indictment to- plosion wrecked the new shaft of the day of the Baltimore Daily Post in mine operated by the West Virginia a test case by the Department of state penitentiary here. Justice on the publication of income in the shaft and it is believed fire tax lists, Senator Harrison, democrat, damp ignited from it. Mississippi, issued a statement declaring that, although he voted for the publicity section, he was now sed to it. He asserted it was harmful to business and to the general welfare and he would co-operate with republicans to change the law

This statement added new life to the smouldering discontent of a num er of senators who are displeased with the results of the publicity. Chairman Smoot of the senate finance committee, declared he would lead a fight in the senate to shut off all that he did not believe under the present law newspapers had the right to publish income tax returns. He explained that he fought the insertion of the publicity clause in the tax bill at the time it was presented.

Norris Ready to Fight. On the other hand, Senator Norris republican, Nebraska, who drafted the original publicity clause which was adopted after amendment in conference, asserted that if any attempt was made to strike out the clause, he would, make an effort to shed still more publicity on tax returns. He declared that publicity "worked a hardship only on the dishonest taxpayer," and secrecy forced the honest taxpayer to bear the brunt of the present publicity clause, the Nebraska senator said he would press his original amendment as a substitute to the publicity section. This amendment, he explained, would lay returns instead of only the total tax payments as the present law now provides. Under the amendment, he said, the public would be able to ascertain how the incomes were made and income tax returns would consti-

Senator Cummins, republican, Iowa, who also voted for the clause, said today that the tax publicity had not operated as he had expected. He declared he had heard criticism from unexpected quarters and that small income taxpayers objected to having their situations exposed.

A hundred and twenty-one thousand women would comprise a vast army. Yet a canvass was recently made among more than that number of women who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for feminine allments. The result proved that ninety-eight out of every hundred reported benefit from its use. This is most remarkable evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of womankind, and should influence every sick and ailing woman to try it.
