

Cornhuskers Depart for Final Missouri Valley Conference Game of Season

Cards Battle York College Eleven Today

Coach Adams Looks for Squad to Give Outstayers Hard Tussle—Fifteen Men Make Trip.

THE University of Omaha Cardinals left Thursday afternoon at 4:30 for York, where they will play the York college eleven today. It will be the Cardinals' second conference game, and although the Omaha team's backers are not confident of a victory over York, which defeated both Wayne and Nebraska Aggies, they are hoping that Coach Adams' proteges will upset the odds and hand the Yorkers a defeat.

Coach Adams is taking 15 men on the trip, and will probably start Mead and Hansen at ends, Krogh and Theelen at tackles, Meek and Dunham at guards, Pinto at center, Caldwell at quarterback, Slater and Prather at halves and Captain Bolzendorf at full-back. In addition to these 11, Nelson, Elias, Emigh and Drdla make the journey.

The Cardinal coach will use his line shift playing a greater part of the game, and with the line getting off in good shape, expects to give the outstate team a hard battle.

MADDEN CANCELS BOUW WITH FUENTE

New York, Nov. 20.—Bartley Madden, Irish heavyweight, has called off his scheduled match at Culver City, Cal., with Tony Fuente as a result of the Mexican's legal mixup following his recent bout with Fred Fulton. Madden was to have left for the coast today but postponed his trip until after January 1.

Creamery Company Teams Will Bowl

The Fairmont Creamery company bowling team of Omaha will bowl a telegraphic match against the Fairmont teams in Green Bay, Wis., and Sioux City next Saturday.

Quigley to Referee Yale-Harvard Contest

St. Marys, Kan., Nov. 20.—E. C. Quigley, well-known football official, departed for New Haven, Conn., today where he will referee the Yale-Harvard grid contest in the Yale bowl Saturday.

Columbus Eleven Wins.

Columbus, Neb., Nov. 20.—Columbus defeated David City by score of 7 to 6 in a football game here today.

Vikings to Play Sioux City Team at Fort Sunday

First Important Soccer Contest of Season for Omahans—Game Will Be Second of Double-Header.

SIoux CITY'S crack soccer team, the Sioux City Athletic club, will match their booting skill with the Omaha Vikings in the second game of a double-header scheduled for the Fort Omaha field next Sunday afternoon.

The D. Ba. and the Horaks are scheduled to play in the first game at the Fort Omaha field. This contest will start at 1:45 o'clock and the Vikings-Sioux City game at 3:30 o'clock.

Because of the big double-header at the army post all other soccer games in the Omaha District Soccer league that were scheduled for next Sunday have been postponed.

A large crowd is expected to see the games. Sioux City will send a large delegation to Omaha.

The soccer balls which will be used in the Vikings-Sioux City game will be donated by the Spaulding Sporting Goods company of Omaha.

Art Saunders, formerly assistant coach professional at the Omaha Field club, will play inside right for the Vikings.

Nick Cullop, Omaha Western league first baseman and one of the league's leading home run sockers, plays on the Viking team and will perform in his E. V. De. against the Sioux City eleven.

The lineup for Sunday's game follows:

Sioux City: Goal, Anderson; Defenders, Erickson, Cullop, Erickson, Erickson; Forwards, Erickson, Erickson, Erickson, Erickson, Erickson.

Omaha: Goal, Erickson; Defenders, Erickson, Erickson, Erickson, Erickson; Forwards, Erickson, Erickson, Erickson, Erickson, Erickson.

Utah Seeking
Opening Game

Salt Lake City, Nov. 20.—The University of Utah is seeking a game with one of the northwest conference eleven to open the 1925 football season here, according to announcement today by Harvey Hancock, graduate manager.

The University of Oregon is considered a suitable opponent, as Joe Maddock, former Utah coach, now heads the gridgers of that institution.

This year Utah opened the season with a game against Drake university of Des Moines, Ia., leaders of the Missouri valley conference.

The proposed 1925 game, according to Hancock, would be played on October 3 or 10.

Stars of Eastern Schools
Make Farewell on Saturday

New York, Nov. 20.—College football in the east has prepared stirring farewells for its heroes on Saturday. At Philadelphia, Hazel and Benkert of Rutgers, who together have scored 162 points, will play their last game against Bucknell. McBride of Syracuse will give his all in an effort to defeat the Colgate team. With their passing three of the great modern backfield men will have gone into history.

Chicago Lightweight Will Appear in Semi-Windup of Legion Show

RANKIE SCHAEFFER, slugging Chicago lightweight, will meet Russle Leroy of Fargo, N. D., in the semi-windup of Friday's fistic show at the Auditorium, according to Ed Miller, promoter for the show.

South Omaha Legion post, which is sponsoring the show.

Booking of the semi-windup now completes the program of events for Friday night, which follows:

Main event, 10 rounds: Morris Schiaffer against Pete Latzo.
Semi-windup, 10 rounds: Russle Leroy against Frankie Schaeffer.
Special bout, six rounds: Royal Coffman against Dick Larrabee.

Omaha fight fans who watched Latzo in his workout yesterday are much impressed with the Pennsylvania's boxing skill.

He brought with him newspaper clippings to verify his claims of Dave Shade, Billy Wells, Eddie Shevlin, Jimmy Jones and other crack welterweights.

Latzo took pains to correct the impression that he had ever been knocked out by Mickey Walker, welterweight champion. He produced newspaper accounts of the fight, which related that the two men had staged a spectacular 12-round battle, in which Walker won.

"I have never been knocked out, and have lost only one official decision, that to Frankie Schoell, whom I have since defeated," said Latzo.

Latzo is the second of two brothers to win prominence in the welterweight division. His older brother, Steve, recently retired from the ring after a creditable record against the leading men in the same division.

Pete is 23, his brother, Steve, being nine years older than he.

Duffy Scores Knockdown
Over Jack Britton

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 20.—Jimmy Duffy won a four-round decision last night over Jack Britton. Duffy scored a knockdown in the third round. Britton fought Duffy hammer and tongue and it was the opinion of the ring-side reporters that the fight should have been a draw.

Notre Dame "Subs" Rough and Ready "Kids," Says "Rock"

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 20.—Why Coach Rockne of Notre Dame frequently opens an important game with a sub-line-up has been explained. The ambitious "subs" fairly force him to it, he said.

"Those youngsters are rough and ready kids who sit on the bench all afternoon and drive me crazy," the Notre Dame mentor explains.

"Every time some opposing back plunges for five or ten yards through the Notre Dame line you'll see them jump up and wave their hands. 'Let Pete in there' those fellows wouldn't get through if I was in the game."

"I ought to be in that game, Coach" is all you can hear. "I figured if those fellows wanted action I'd give it to them. I gave them instructions to get in there and make it tough for the opposition during the first quarter, and believe me, they did.

They wore Army and Princeton down and ruined Georgia Tech's line in the first 15 minutes of play."

Marine Shot Breaks Record

Lima, Peru, Nov. 20.—Capt. Joseph Jackson, United States marine corps and a member of the Pan-American rifle team, broke a world's record Wednesday, scoring 100 consecutive cartons and 900 points in the Pan-American master rifleman's match.

His score beat by four cartons the record made by Captain Richard at Camp Perry in 1913, in the first Pan-American matches.

At a distance of 325 yards Captain Jackson placed 100 consecutive shots in a 16-inch circle, only four of the shots being out of the 12-inch circle.

Sergt. Morris Fisher, world rifle champion in the Olympic matches, broke the record by a score of 95 out of 100 from the kneeling position.

COMPLETES CAGE LEAGUE AT "Y"

The Tuesday division of the Y. M. C. A. Novice Church Basketball league completed its schedule Tuesday night, and the Thursday division will wind up the season tonight.

The Tuesday loop ended with the First Christian T. N. T. and the First Unitarians tied for first place with four wins and one defeat apiece.

They will meet for the championship Saturday night in a post-season game.

Walnut Hill Banians ended in third place, and Parkville Presbyterian in fourth. North Side Christian and the St. Luke Lutheran shared the cellar. The final standings:

W. L. T. T. 4 1 4.50
First Unitarian 3 2 3.50
Walnut Hill Banians 2 3 2.50
Parkville Presbyterian 2 4 2.00
North Side Christian 1 4 1.50
St. Luke Lutheran 1 4 1.50

Malmroth Wins Swim.
Chicago, Nov. 20.—H. Malmroth, who won the 200 and 400-meter Olympic breast stroke championships as a member of the Swedish Olympic team, and now a resident here, has affiliated with the Illinois Athletic club swimming team.

20 Years in Sport World From The Omaha Bee Files

NOVEMBER 21, 1904.

Champaign, Ill.—Illinois defeated the University of Iowa, 29 to 6, here today. Iowa could not resist the charge of the Illinois backfield, which smashed through the Hawkeyes' wall for 29 points.

The organization of a city basketball league last Tuesday evening in the annual of that enjoyable indoor game, will afford recreation for Omaha business men, besides giving the high school team a chance to play in fast company.

A schedule committee of the city league has now at work making out the schedule for the season. Figuring on first and second teams on the high school and association teams there will be at least 20 teams entered.

New York—The Old Glory horse sale, which each year follows the horse show, opened today at Madison Square Garden, with many well-known horses present. There are 40 horses to be sold this year, among which are some of the most famous horses in the country. Both in stud records and in racing records, Arion, the bay stallion, who as a 2-year-old won the world's championship, 1881, sold for $125,000, was sold to M. W. Savage for $2,500.

A single of excitement pervades the city of Iowa today. The Thanksgiving day game with the Iowa State normal Coach Williams is pushing his hokies hard and expects to put a strong team in the field against the Hawkeyes.

Captain Callahan, fleet-footed quarter-back, recovered from the injury he sustained last week, and will be able to enter the game.

The Iowa game defeated Grinnell, Co. Simpson Ames and its remarkable show. The contest, in which the Iowa Hawkeyes to an 11 to 2 victory, shows very clearly the position it holds in western football circles.

HARLAN FENGLER UNABLE TO RACE

Los Angeles, Nov. 20.—The 250-mile Thanksgiving day Ascot cup race has drawn 67 entrants to date, although but 40 starters will be permitted.

Elimination trials will be next Sunday. Harlan Fengler, "boy wonder" automobile racing driver, who was injured last May while practicing for the Indianapolis speedway classic, has been advised by physicians to withdraw his entry from the Ascot list.

JOE STECHER THROWS MYAKA

Tulsa, Okla., Nov. 20.—Joe Stecher, former world's champion wrestler, last night had added another victory to his long list, having defeated Laro Myaka, Japanese champion in three straight falls.

The first fall required 22 minutes. Stecher rendered his opponent unconscious.
