THE SUNDAY BEE: OMAHA, NOVEMBER 23, 1924.

turned over to Dr. H. M. Brundage of Columbus for pathological examination late today.

any poison.

RADIO PICTURES

tion of "photography with radio," points to various changes in the fundamental methods of communication of communication sciences and authorizes the statement, made public today in the annual report of Maj. Gen. C. M. Saltzman, chief of the army signal corps, that messages of the future, whether written, printed or mixed with diagrams and photographs, will, it seems, be certain soon be transmitted photographically by radio frequency at a rate 10 times faster than was ever possible by the dot and dash methods of hand transmission call to police from the Sandwich shop, Eighteenth and Farnam streets. Clyde Bell, Fifth and Seward streets, porter, who told how he had been held up by a lone bandit who rifled the cash register of $33.55.

PORTER ADMITS

ther cross-examination and he admitted that he himself took the cash and hid it in a box on the second floor of the building. There the police found it.

cause his wife was "hounding him" for clothes.

Twenty-second street, a coal dealer, died at 4:30 Saturday morning at his home of heart disease. He is survived by his wife, Mary; mother, Mrs. Frances Pivonka; sisters, Mrs. James Stanek, Mrs. Frances Murphy and Mrs. M. F. Novak; and brothers, Charles and John of Omaha and dence Monday at 9 and in the As-sumption church at 9:30, Rev. John Krajicek officiating. Burial will be in St. Mary cemetery.