Stranded Actresses May Have to Pay Own Fares

To recover wages and transportation back to New York from show they deserted in Los Angeles, Cal. Jean Vernon (left) and Eleanor Kingston petitioned labor board. Money to return to New York was granted, but case will be tried before Chorus Equity association, and if they lose they must repay show.

Civil War Again Threatens China

Pekin Troops on Move Toward Shanghai to Meet Kiangsu Force.

By International News Service. Shanghai, China, Dec. 13.—After less than a month of a semblance of peace, civil war is again threatened in China today when it became apparent that war between Kiangsu province, in which Shanghai is located, and Pekin, is certain to break out within 48 hours.

Pekin troops commanded by Chang Tau Chang passed through Tschow, 150 miles south of Tientsin, this morning, according to advices reaching here, en route to Shanghai. Kiangsu troops from Pukow are moving northward to meet the invaders. To add to the confusion it is learned that just as soon as through rail traffic between Pekin and Shanghai had opened Lu Yung Hsiang, the recently deposed Tschow of Chekiang province, started toward Nanking, capital of the adjoining province of Kiangsu, in an effort to oust Chi Hsieh Yuan from the Tschowship of Kiangsu.

Three months ago Chi Hsieh Yuan was commander of a government expedition against Lu Yung Hsiang, today Chi is the rebel and Lu is the government commander.

2 CONVENTIONS COME TO OMAHA

Two more conventions have been obtained for Omaha next year by the publicity bureau of the Chamber of Commerce. They are the Tri-State Poster Advertising convention, to be held in April, and the Nebraska Veterinary Medical association convention, to be held in the winter.

TROTSKY LEAVES ON HEALTH TRIP

Moscow, Dec. 13.—Leon Trotsky, soviet commissar for war, has departed for the south, the public health commissar announced today. Trotsky has been suffering from an aggravated case of la grippe and seeks rest, the health commissioner said.

Ex-Omaha Druggist Is Released From Prison

William Holst

William Holst, former Omaha druggist at 2702 Cummer street, was released Friday from the Iowa penitentiary at Fort Madison, to which he was sent October 21, 1923, for three years. He was allowed 10 months and 11 days off for good behavior.

He and Pearl Ohlman, 2025 North Sixteenth street, Omaha, were arrested in Council Bluffs. Mrs. Ohlman was sent to the woman's reformatory at Rockwell City for three years. A few months prior to that time the two were brought back to Omaha from Globe, Ariz., and Holst was faced with a charge of non-support of his wife.

"I gave her my store and home, worth $15,000, and she has other property worth thousands," he said. The arrest in Council Bluffs occurred when he was out on bond.

Lewis Again Head of Mine Workers

Entire Administration Ticket Re-Elected by Big Margin.

By International News Service. Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 13.—John L. Lewis has been re-elected president of the United Mine Workers of America, together with the entire administration ticket, by overwhelming pluralities. It was apparent here today as the official canvass of the vote in the recent election began.

Unofficial returns were borne out showing that Lewis, John Phillip Murray, vice president, and William Green, secretary treasurer, had won by impressive totals. The opposition candidates who were not widely known, received little support, it was indicated, outside their own districts. The election is held biennially.

Mother Jeers While Officers Seek Bond Loot

"Would We Live in Shack If Son Had Money?" Asks Mrs. Poffenbarger.

Mrs. Fred Poffenbarger, mother of Fred Poffenbarger, Jr., who was arrested a few days ago on his release from the federal penitentiary and is held in Kansas City, Kan., for further investigation in connection with the Council Bluffs mail robbery of 1920, declared Saturday that she knows her son and his companions have no hidden loot.

"It is ridiculous to believe that they have any of those bonds or things hidden away," she said. "If they had, do you think we'd be living as we are?"

She and three children and her husband, who was released from prison last August, live in a small shack at 1414 South Thirteenth street, Council Bluffs. Poffenbarger, sr., earns a little by doing odd jobs.

"When my boy is released somebody will have to buy him some clothes and get him a job," she continued. "We had to depend on the county while they were in prison."

Asked where her son got money to pay attorneys who are defending him, Mrs. Poffenbarger said she did not know.

Bond Cache Denied.

Kansas City, Kan., Dec. 12.—Two youths sat in their cells at the county jail here tonight and told of their part in one of America's most sensational mail robberies.

Calmly they recounted their actions on the night of November 13, 1920, when they robbed the fast Burlington mail train as it passed through Council Bluffs.

"They just want to ride us," Collins declared. "They know that we are broke now and can't fight this indictment. They think that they will just keep us in jail from now on out. We didn't hide any of those bonds."
