Miss Garvin, Leslie

Williams' Bride. Leslie Williams, son of Mrs. John Williams and Iucy Garvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Garvin were wed last evening at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Frank

G. Smith. The bride wore a beltless gown of white suede crepe, made with a yoke and sleeves formed by a band of duchess rosepoint lace. The slightly draped skirt was caught with a pearl calochon on the left side.

Her tulle veil, one worn by Mrs. Daniel Gruenig (Marion Brown) when Mes Garvin attended her as brides arid, was held in a coronet of point worn by the bride's mother when he was a bride. Her bouquet com and lilies of the valley, white sweet s and butterfly roses.

Miss Helen Garvin was the only atndant. She was gowned in orchidhi fon with orchid and blue ostrich . vervet trimming and carried or il tinted sweet peas. Lyman Wil Il ms served as best man.

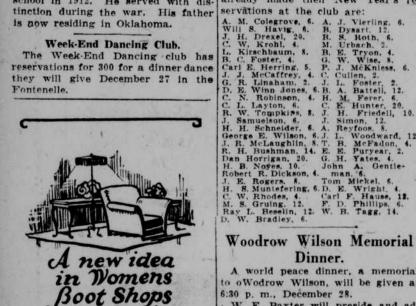

The ceremony was performed in front of an improvised altar of greenery and pink and white roses in the I ving room and the young people left immediately afterward on their honeymoon.

They will be at home after Febru ary 1 in the Pasadena apartments.

Rabbi Rytins Is Wed. wedding of interest here took place December 1 at Henderson, N. C., when Miss Ruth Roth of that city was married to Rabbi Fred Rytins of Wilmington, N. C., former of Omaha. Following a wedding trip to Florida, the bride and groom are now at home at Carolina apartments, Wilmington, N. C.

Miss Roth was teaching in the high school at Henderson at the time of her marriage. Rabbi Rytins by Miss Grace Sorenson. is a brother of Edwin Rytins and a nephew of Miss Rose and Nathan Bernstein of Omaha. He was born in Omaha and was graduated as an honor student from Central High school in 1912. He served with distinction during the war. His father servations at the club are:
