

Creighton Bluejays Open Basketball Season Against Minnesota Tomorrow

Gophers Have Eyes Peeled on Big Ten Title

Coach Schabinger of Blues Has Squad in Good Condition for One of Hardest Games of Schedule.

OMAHA'S 1924-1925 collegiate basketball season will be ushered in Monday night at 7:30 p. m., when the University of Minnesota cagers will clash with the Creighton Bluejays on the Creighton floor.

It will be the Blues' first game of the season, and the Gophers' third. The Gophers have topped over two teams thus far this season, having defeated North Dakota Aggies and Notre Dame, and tomorrow's battle will find them holding a slight edge over the Bluejays by virtue of their having these contests under their respective belts.

The game promises to be a close contest. Creighton has long reigned supreme on the cage courts of the central west, and Coach Taylor, of Minnesota, who is priming his Gophers for the "Big Ten" championship, realizes this and counts on a victory over the Schabinger-coached quintet to boost his stock in the Big Ten.

While the Minnesota squad looks mighty strong, the Creighton aggregation does not look so bad. With Captain Johnny Trautman, Ryan, Brown and Robbie at forwards; "Ike" Mahoney, Shinstock and Jack Ryan at center, and Koudele, Croneman, Keyt, Bertoglio and Conway at guards, the Creighton squad appears strong.

Captain Trautman and Ryan are the most dependable of the forwards and are slated to get the call against Minnesota. Both are experienced men from last year's squad.

Mahoney is Schabinger's best bet for center. He has speed, height and experience, and is deadly with the leather from almost any distance.

With Joe Spener, regular guard, out of the Minnesota game with an injured knee, the barricaded positions will probably fall to the two lettermen from last year's team, Koudele and Corneman.

Both men are fast, accurate passers, and their work in the final games of last season showed them to have the stuff. Keyt, Bertoglio, and Conway are second string guards who will probably get a chance in the game.

According to Schabinger, the seat sale for the big game has been brisk, but plenty of choice seats are still available.

Schommer of Chicago and Lohman of Wisconsin will officiate.

CLARINDA GRID STARS WIN LETTERS

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Clarinda, Ia., Dec. 20.—Sixteen football men were awarded letters by Superintendent E. L. Weaver at a special chapel service. Ten of these men will be lost to the team by graduation, among them Cramer, Allen, Thompson, Jack Thompson, Wilbur Linebaugh, captain; Harvey Janssen, Estes Hardee, Charles Johnson, Paul McClelland, Darryl Pendergraft, Raymond Walker. The 1925 schedule for the high school team has but one open date, September 28. Burton North, coach, considers the prospects good for a strong team.

Speed Record Ratified. Paris, Dec. 20.—The Aero Club of France has officially ratified the new world's speed airplane record of 418.17 kilometers per hour, made by Adolphe Bertrando at Istres, December 11. This record was 278.48 miles per hour.

Big and "Rusty" Evans Battle Ten Rounds to Draw--Strong Beats Ritchie

FIGHT RESULTS. Erwin Big and "Rusty" Evans fought a 10-round referee's decision over Sallor Klinton. 10 rounds. Everett Strong scored technical knockout over Lew Ritchie, second round of round bout. One-Step Watson and Rich Matlock fought to six-round referee's draw. Tommy Hogan and Jimmie Mandl fought to four-round referee's draw.

HILE zero weather lingered outdoors, a large crowd of fistic fans seated themselves around the ring-side in the Cudahy Athletic club building last night and witnessed one of the best fight programs ever held in South Omaha or Omaha proper.

The main event between Erwin Big of Omaha and "Rusty" Evans of York, Neb., was called a draw at the end of ten rounds of more or less interesting box-fighting. The boys are lightweighters of the light-tapping fashion who are fast on their "dags" but minus any great amount of hitting power.

Knocks Big Down. Big started off strong, but in the second round Evans half knocked him to the floor. The Dundee grocer boy took a count of seven and then managed to make the evening a busy one for the outstayer. If either Big or Evans could hit one of the other would have scored a knockout before

Will "Schabby's" Dream of Stadium Come True in 1925?

A. Schabinger, better known to his friends as just plain, everyday "Schabby," athletic director of Creighton university, is dreaming of the day when Creighton can boast of a fine, brand new stadium like the University of Nebraska owns. "Schabby" is a busy man just at the present time, preparing his Bluejay hoopers for the basket ball game with Minnesota here Monday night. When Schabinger dreams about the new stadium he also has a dream or two about Nebraska and Notre Dame playing Creighton in football.

WESTERN LEAGUE

Jack Holland has not yet secured a leader for his club. He and Crawford, owner of Tulsa, are the only two managers in the league who have not signed up a pilot for the 1925 season. Fred Luderus, last season manager of the Tulsa club, is now with Shreveport of the Texas league, and Jack Lelievre, last season main lubricator of the Oiler camp, is to preside over the destinies of St. Joseph.

A Western league baseball club so reorganized, revamped and rejuvenated by the acquisition of new material that the circuit's fans will not recognize it, is the aggregation which will play Lincoln uniforms next season. All but seven of the Links have been given their walking papers and new blood and new faces will come around to spring training camp next year. Manager Fred Luderus has been doing a lot of buying, selling and trading, mostly buying and trading, and in doing so has gone deep into Oiler Larry Luderus's pocketbook. The players who will see the field next season are: Catcher Pat Hayes from Redlands of the International league; Pitchers Gilmer and Tracy from Shreveport of the Texas league; Shortstop Al Maderaz and Picher and Tracy from Oakland of the Pacific Coast league; Outfielder Jim Sweeney from Chicago of the American association, and Picher Reipold and Outfielder Moore from the American club of the Southwestern association.

All of the other ball clubs of the Western league did quite a lot of buying and selling during the season of 1924 and a lot more is expected. Denver did probably lose the most money and a known fact is that the club needs an outfield. Cincinnati is the only good fielder in the aggregation has. Joe Mathes went to Des Moines from St. Joseph and did a lot of good work there. He will have almost as new a club as Lincoln. This two teams fought for the cellar position last season.

Jim Sweeney, former Oklahoma City outfielder, who was dissatisfied with his berth with that club last season and who was traded to Kansas City of the American (Montgomery) league in the Western league next season, but not as a trier. Sweeney, Jim goes to Lincoln, where he will be of great value. Sweeney is a good hitter and a fair fielder. Sweeney, ball players, who have been with Oklahoma City and could not go there, will be in other cities and even Eddie Moore is one of these. He went to Lincoln and is playing a whole of a game. Henry Gindard is another of the former Triersmen. He made good with Denver last season and was right up near the top of the batting list almost all season.

More one of the best fielders in the league, who did not get to see the batters of his next season by his many injuries, but he has a chance to get a chance to see him to a Pacific Coast league club, and he may continue in 1925 in the West.

Jack Roche, Denver catcher, who played first base for the last half of the season, has been traded to Omaha in Falls of the Texas league. The Bears got "Hippo" Hodges and another player yet to be named for the catcher.

Hickey Signs Umpire. Chicago, Dec. 19.—President Thomas J. Hickey of the American association tonight announced the signing of the third member of his umpiring staff for 1925, with the receipt of the contract of Ollie Chill.

The semi-windup brought together a pair of tall, bawgy and take youths, one by the name of Mike Roggal, the pride of the Cudahy plant, and the other by the name of "Sallor" Klinton from the hamlet across the river. At the end of the 10 rounds the referee awarded the decision to Roggal. In our humble opinion Klinton won, but a draw would not have hurt either boxer and what's more it would have pleased all concerned. There was a knockdown during the 10 rounds, but there was plenty of slambanging.

Liston showed to good advantage during the late rounds, especially the 10th, when he had Roggal hanging on. The Council Bluffs boy took it easy during the early part of the mill.

Roggal fought the best fight we have ever seen him fight. He took many a stiff wallop on the brezer in order to land and he landed many hard wallops. Liston will back us up in this statement.

Everett Strong, the Spencer, Ia., middleweight who showed up so well at the Auditorium a week ago when he beat Jack Schaeffer, scored a technical knockout over Lew Ritchie, address, Lincoln, in the second round of a scheduled 10-round bout.

It was Strong all the way. Ritchie appeared out of condition. He swings like the old rusty gate, if you know how it swings.

One-Step Watson and Rich Matlock, the latter of the Cudahy plant, fought a six-round draw. Both tried hard and there was plenty of action.

RACING-RESULTS

Pawnee County Fair to Have Woman Race Horse Driver

Table Rock, Neb., Dec. 20.—The annual meeting of the Pawnee County Fair association was held at Pawnee City yesterday afternoon, and attractions for the 1925 fair are already being considered. One of the novelties assured for next year's race meet, is a string of race horses owned and trained by a woman and driven by the owner. The lady is Miss Helen Hurley of Ponca, Neb., who was a visitor at the Pawnee county fair last fall, and who states that she is now training six racers and after covering the northern circuit of the state next fall, she will come to Pawnee county.
