

Walking around world, but occasionally they ride in a taxi. Mr. and Mrs. Hofman started out from a little village in the Netherlands with the idea of visiting every country in the world. Now they are in New York. Mr. Hofman is wearing his 14th pair of wooden shoes. He makes them himself.

"Fountain of Memories," erected in Minden, Neb., as Kearney county's war memorial. It was designed by J. W. Kennedy of Minden. Each fountain represents a Kearney county boy who died in the service and the names of all the men and women from the county who served in the war are engraved on four bronze tablets.

Faculty and class of new school of commerce at Creighton university:
 1, Paul Steinberg; 2, H. M. Higgins; 3, F. E. Doyle; 4, C. M. Barry; 5, Martin Gibbons; 6, Gerald Pitman; 7, Lawrence Lohmeier; 8, Joe Condon; 9, Leo J. Berger; 10, W. E. DeWitt; 11, James Luse; 12, Bernard Herbers; 13, Clement Earl; 14, C. E. Peterson; 15, Oral A. Smith; 16, W. E. Dugdale; 17, E. J. Dondelinger; 18, Nathan Reiss; 19, Sam Segelman; 20, Cyril Farr; 21, Emmet Powers; 22, C. Chalburg; 23, L. J. Kelly; 24, Alexander McGowan; 25, H. B. Wolff; 26, R. L. Smith; 27, C. J. O'Brien; 28, L. J. Tobin; 29, J. L. Miskowicz; 30, N. E. Authier; 31, F. E. Sorkness; 32, H. J. Rodeweg; 33, F. P. Fleming; 34, L. Jones; 35, Gerald Lavey; 36, E. W. Prenevost; 37, F. W. Fry; 38, Dan Donahue; 39, J. H. Sauer; 40, Wendell Thoenie; 41, H. E. Jacobs; 42, D. F. Schwertley; 43, Francis Nolan; 44, C. V. Nuschy; 45, F. W. McDonough; 46, W. M. Clark; 47, J. Chiong; 48, F. P. O'Donnell; 49, E. A. Bohac; 50, W. E. Hinchey; 51, J. P. O'Brien; 52, R. W. Kohli; 53, B. E. Chapman; 54, L. E. Lipp; 55, Harry Oland; 56, Sam Zacharia; 57, G. N. Diesing; 58, T. R. Delaney; 59, John G. Reidy; 60, P. J. Conley; 61, W. J. Donelan; 62, E. J. Grier; 63, M. H. Head; 64, L. A. Quinn; 65, M. Mandelson; 66, John P. Lacey; 67, James F. Leary; 68, Ed McCreary; 69, C. Chalburg; 70, D. P. Morrison; 71, Ray Williams; 72, Benjamin Hronek; 73, John Preston; 74, W. L. Denker; 75, Howard Hayes; 76, Bayard Gray; 77, Lawrence Timoney; 78, George Kent; 79, Ray Quirin; 80, L. Foral; 81, Carl Vaehal; 82, Edwin Wegman; 83, Lawrence Kerwin; 84, Lyle Kelley; 85, Emma Whelan; 86, Florence Freitag; 87, Helen Murphy; 88, Catherine Cushing; 89, Josephine Newton; 90, Henrietta Heppner; 91, Elizabeth Manion; 92, John P. Begley; 93, B. A. Kennedy; 94, Mrs. Margaret Curran; 95, Dr. D. B. Harmon; 96, Miss Rose McAleer; 97, K. D. Arndt; 98, Charles Charvat; 99, A. A. Klammer; 100, Geraldine Swack; 101, Marie Moore; 102, Veronica Carter; 103, Anne Madden; 104, Dorothy Horn; 105, Grace Matous; 106, Ludmilla Meimert; 107, Phillip Nestor; 108, Charles O'Brien; 109, Joseph E. Connor; 110, Lawrence Brownell; 111, Joseph Donahue; 112, John Moylan; 113, Carl Dugan; 114, Francis Coffey; 115, Mark Bancroft; 116, Clarence O'Hara.

They call these caddies in France. These slightly elderly women are two of the best caddies at the St. Cloud Country club near Paris. How would you like to have feminine caddies, you American golfers?

Eight jelly beans bring happiness. Here are the eight little jelly bean pups that Mrs. Jelly Bean, a shepherd, gave to bring happiness to the youngsters at the Scottish Rites Crippled Children's home at Atlanta, Ga.

Just before the battle mother. Admitting that powder is needed for the fray these young women, well aided by the field mirror, are giving their idea of the way powder should be used. On the face, of course. They are Wellesley college girls getting ready for a game of ball.

Perhaps you'll find some embryonic Paul Poirrets here. Class in costume designing at Central High school. Photo by Dewell