

Make Some Poor Family Happy---

Give a "Goodfellowship" Basket

Without Your Help Many an Omaha Family Will Go Hungry on Christmas

The issue is strictly up to you. As a man and a "Goodfellow" it is a privilege and duty to assist in making Christmas a day of cheer for Omaha's poor.

Through this plan of "Goodfellowship" Baskets you can give in any amount you wish. You give to worthy poor. You are excused from the necessity of making personal delivery of the baskets if you wish.

The Goodfellowship Basket will prove a never-to-be-forgotten Christmas gift.

Can You Really Enjoy Your Christmas Dinner Knowing That Thousands Are Going Hungry?

In the comforts of your own home, where merriment reigns supreme, where laughter and plenty abound, surely you will want to share this to some degree with those far less fortunate.

Pick up your phone, make your wishes known; they will be carried out to the letter. Some will want to give five baskets; others ten. Others will want to take care of more. Do your part now.

Phone AT. 1000, Omaha Bee, and get names of as many deserving families as you care to present with baskets

From Omaha's many charitable organizations we have secured lists of families who are truly deserving. Families who will indeed spend a gloomy Christmas unless Omaha's Goodfellows grasp this opportunity to give.

The day before Christmas as well as on Christmas morning, will find hundreds of big-hearted Omahans with their cars loaded with "Goodfellowship" Baskets visiting the homes of the poor. Will you be among them, or will you forget the poor?
